

STATE MILITIA CALLED OUT

M'CLAUGHRY'S SETTLE CASE

DIVORCE TO BE GRANTED AT ONCE

Lucky Baldwin's Daughter and Her Husband Reach Terms.

Case to Come to Early Trial; Arrange Custody of Children.

ANTA BALDWIN M'CLAUGHRY, accompanied by her attorneys, Gavin McNab and Garrett McEnerney, with her husband, Hull McLaughry, and his attorneys, including Stanley Moore, appeared in the Superior Court this afternoon shortly before 3 o'clock for the trial of her divorce suit which was filed here last Monday on a change of venue from the Los Angeles courts.

Upon stipulation entered into by attorneys for both sides early this morning, it was agreed that the case should come to an early trial, and it is believed that the couple have made a complete settlement between themselves regarding the custody of the two minor children. Dextra, aged 12, and Baldwin, aged 9 years, and that the divorce will be granted without delay upon the charges made in the complaint of Mrs. McLaughry.

The case was called before Superior Judge Fred V. Wood of Amador county, who is sitting in department two in place of Superior Judge Waste, who is on his vacation.

AIM AT SECRECY.
Both sides made strenuous efforts to keep the matter as quiet as possible in order to avoid publicity, of which the McLaughrys have had their share during the last year as a result of their marital differences. The case was allowed to go to trial only through stipulation, the court order of June 12 affecting cases to be heard between June 23 and August 22 providing that no new cases be commenced except under that provision and on agreement of one of the judges.

GREGORY, PARKIN, CRISP RELEASED

Two Well-Known Pitchers and Catcher Leave the Oaks.

Word came from Los Angeles this afternoon that Pitchers Howard Gregory, Cy Parkin and Catcher Joe Crisp have been released outright by Manager Mize of the Oakland ball club to make room for the new men who are expected to bolster up the team. The news comes as no surprise to local fans, for it has been felt for several weeks that these three players would have to surrender places on the payroll. Gregory and Cy Parkin are both popular players, but the former's health has been so poor that he has been unable to round to form, while Parkin is distinctly a spring pitcher, whose usefulness depends about this time of the year. Parkin was the great storm of the league, an excellent slapper performer, and a mighty good fellow to have in camp, for he kept up the spirits of the bunch.

Still, drastic action was necessary in the face of the long string of detentions out to the club.

JOHNSON RENOUNCES AMERICA FOREVER

Will Take Up Residence In Paris and Never Return to U. S.

HAVRE, France, July 10.—Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, arrived here today on board the Corinthian and immediately on landing announced his determination never to return to the United States. He said he would take up his residence in Paris.

BOND FORFEITURE.
WASHINGTON, July 10.—Jack Johnson's announcement that he would never return to the United States caused department of justice officials immediately to take steps to bring about the forfeiture of his $50,000 personal bond pending in Chicago, for his appearance in connection with white slave indictments upon which he has not yet been tried.

Judge Carpenter a few days ago declined to declare the bond forfeited until it was clear that Johnson would not appear when wanted. The department of justice, it is believed, will seek official confirmation of his announced purpose not to return and present the matter again to Judge Carpenter.

BULLETIN.
MILL VALLEY, July 10, 2:35 p. m.—The fire has broken out between Larkspur and Corte Madera, and fanned by a stiff breeze is threatening those towns again. A company from the Sixth Regiment has been sent to the scene. In Cascade Canyon, two and a half miles away, 500 men are struggling with a stubborn fire that is not under control.

(Special to THE TRIBUNE)
MILL VALLEY, July 10, 2 p. m.—Fighting furiously against the fire fiend, and exhausted from an all-night struggle, an army of soldiers, sailors and citizens is at this hour defending the last stretch of ground between Muir Woods and the conflagration. There is some chance of saving the famous forest if human courage and resourcefulness can accomplish the task.

FORBES PHONES OFFICIAL ORDER

Following His Message East Side Guardsmen Mobilize.

IN answer to a telephone message received early this morning from Adjutant-General E. A. Forbes of the National Guard, Companies A and F of Oakland, C of Berkeley and Battery B have mobilized, and all day detachments of guardsmen have been leaving to fight the fire on Tamalpais. The first detail left this morning at 9:30, each of the forty men carrying a bolo, short axe, a spade, a sack and a canteen. The local troops are in command of Lieutenant Duncan C. McKinlay Jr. and Captain Meyer Herman, quartermaster of the Fifth Infantry. The details were led by Battalion Quartermaster Sergeant E. de Hermita, Sergeant James Gleason, Sergeant C. C. Alexander, Sergeant I. Berney, Sergeant W. G. Tuthill and Corporals C. C. Emerson, J. H. Fahy and R. H. Nedderman. At noon a message was received by Lieutenant F. M. Harris saying that the naval militia would join the guardsmen on order from the Governor.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—The Governor, in addition to ordering out the state militia, has ordered the naval militia to report for service. There are two divisions of the reserves in the bay cities, comprising 200 men.

danger. All authorities agreed that nothing but lack of wind had saved the forest and the towns. The fire never took hold of the heavy timber. A genuine forest fire, in any of the canyons would be unconquerable.

SOLDIERS AT WORK

Sleepy soldiers shook themselves out of bed this morning and hurried to the relief of their comrades who had been up all night. Before noon 1000 militiamen from Oakland, San Rafael, Santa Rosa, Petaluma, Hayward and other neighboring towns were expected to come to the aid of the tired soldiery and volunteer fire-fighters. It was their plan to fall on the sleeping canyons and beat them out or shovel them under during the still hours of morning and early afternoon.

Mayor Klyce turned over today all management of precautions within the limit of Mill Valley to Deputy Chief Maxwell of the San Francisco fire department, who had brought thousands of feet of hose and an automobile chemical engine from the city. The mayor has not slept since Sunday night, but took up his work again this morning without interruption.

Colonel George Bell, who has not been out of his clothes for 72 hours, or slept for 48 hours, was the first to lead the way into Blytheville canyon when it was light enough to see. Captain Plunkett of the South Dakota led his 600 men back to their ship on the first train out of Mill Valley.

Rumor has not yet been downed to the effect that five men lost their lives hemmed in by a circle of fire. Householders of Mill Valley, residents of Blytheville canyon near Corte Madera, and those who have their homes in the midst of the wooded hillsides adjacent to Corte Madera began removing the belongings from their homes and taking them to open clearings.

SITUATION NOT QUIET

Added to a rather warm day was the heat and smoke from the devastating blaze. Despite efforts of officials to cheer the householders the situation has been anything but quiet and the impending fear of the entire winding out of the little towns has continued to spread.

The Mt. Tamalpais railway has been doing heroic service. Engineers, conductors, firemen and officials have been running the trains into the path of the flames. Nothing, however, has been able to stay the onward progress of the demon monster which has made Muir Woods a torch, has destroyed everything of interest and beauty on the summit of Tamalpais and keeps threatening Blytheville, in the suburbs of Mill Valley, and all the home districts at the foot of the mountain.

Early this morning the news that the temporary hotel and resort in Muir Woods had gone up in smoke was brought into Mill Valley. Then came the statement that five soldiers were believed to have been burned to death. The report could not be confirmed, but the statement was made that 15 soldiers were caught among the flames and that only 10 made their escape. Fifty fire-fighters working on the ridge had to be carried to places of safety in a semi-conscious condition after they had been overcome by the flames and smoke. At 10:30 last night all the electric lights in Mill Valley suddenly went out and it is believed that the transmission lines at Warner's ridge were burned.

MANY HEROIC DEEDS

The deeds of heroism have been unnumbered. Whole regiments of men have responded for calls for help in one direction and another. San Francisco's fire department has sent over their fire-boats with 12,000 feet of hose and two engines. Water is being pumped from the bay up into Larkspur canyon and a fight being made to save that town.

The country roads adjacent to Mill Valley, Larkspur and Corte Madera present a scene of fleeing households. Men, women and children are running along carrying furniture and utensils of every description. The fire was estimated as covering an area of 4000 acres last night and residents skirting that entire section have spent two days without sleep.

Fifteen hundred men and boys alone, representing the citizens of the Marin county towns, have for 48 hours been armed with axes, working like Trojans. Their efforts were seconded by the women and girls supplying coffee and food to the exhausted men.

LONDON LASS FIGHTS FIRE ASSISTS COMMISSARY MEN

LARKSPUR, July 10.—One small girl, in a white dress, which, however, soon acquired color, mostly black, was one of the hardest of the fire-fighters who beat back the flames near this place today. Miss Dorothy Groom, of London, a visitor here, did yeoman service as a volunteer, and after assisting the fire-fighters, turned her attention to the commissary department, assisting the other girls to feed the hungry firemen.

Miss Groom arrived here from London several days ago and is visiting friends in Larkspur. She declares that the blaze is the largest she has ever seen. "We don't have forest fires in London, y' know," she explained as she waved a huge branch and fanned out the flames in burned grass on the hillsides. "Pon my word, I shall jolly well have something to tell the girls when I get back."

Many women turned out from Larkspur and organized a commissary force to feed the fire-fighters.

BRICE ADDRESSES OPTIMUM CONFEREES

THE HAGUE, July 10.—The International Optimum conference closed yesterday. In an address the American minister, Lloyd Bryce, dilated on the humanitarian and moral value of the conference. After expressing regret for the outbreak of war in the Balkans, he said:

"That it is confined to one part of Europe is due to the influence spread by the conference at The Hague, the center of international co-operation."

The Dutch minister of foreign affairs said the government would spare no effort to induce all the nations represented at the last conference to sign the optimum convention before the end of the year.

SEEK TO PREVENT FALSE ADVERTISING

Wilber Walker and a number of jewelry merchants and other members of the Merchants' Exchange, appeared before the city council this morning to ask the passage of the ordinance recently placed before the council to prohibit the attempt to misrepresent goods, real estate or to publicly proclaim announcements or publish any false statement concerning property for sale.

The matter was referred to City Attorney Ben F. Woolner, who will carefully examine the proposed "true and accurate" and report back to council.

FIRE CUTS WIDE SWATH OF RUIN

Soldiers Carry Prostrated Companion Through Burning District.

MILL VALLEY, July 10.—Cut off by a violent onrush of flame and smoke and beaten back in their efforts to escape down the railroad, the soldiers of the Sixth Infantry carried a prostrated comrade, Private D. W. Keary, two and a half miles through the burning district into Mill Valley. Late last night it was still uncertain if he would survive.

Accompanying the enormous forest of the 160 men under Colonel Bell were four members of a moving picture outfit who were rescued from a most perilous position into which they had rushed to record fire-fighting scenes.

Colonel Bell and his detachment were at work about 6 o'clock in the evening at the big bend, while 500 feet above them the moving picture men were posted. Colonel Bell, seeing the flames rushing on them, all shouted a peremptory order to the men of the "movies" to join his party in a retreat.

They all rushed downward as far as Big Curve, where the fire path protecting Corte Madera extended, but further progress was impossible. Colonel Bell led the way back, through ever-thickening smoke, and at times actually passing through flames, until he found the short trail down the mountain, down which they blundered over the flames.

Half way down Private Keary bowed over. The surgeon with the detachment tried without avail to resuscitate him. Then the other soldiers, almost as badly off, carried him the rest of the way into Mill Valley, being obliged to shift the carrying party every few hundred feet.

COVERS 4000 ACRES

At a late hour last night the fire had covered an area estimated at 4000 acres. A long, irregular-shaped patch, extending from Blackhawk canyon, on the southwest shoulder of the mountain, to the edge of Blytheville canyon, on the northeast, shows the devastating course of the flames. The southern line of the burnt area follows the edge of the Tamalpais railroad, for it was on the railroad that the fire-fighters took their stand and cleared the mountain side by "back-firing" against the encroaching wall of flame.

Before the fire leaped into Blytheville canyon, late yesterday, it had fed chiefly on dense growth of chaparral and grasswood covering the south side of the mountain.

In Mill Valley last night were repeated on a small scale the scenes of flight, confusion and terror which were seen in San Francisco during the fire in 1906. Hundreds of the houses nearest the advancing flames were hurriedly deserted, the inhabitants fleeing with their children, and their valuables, pressing into service all the automobiles, carriages and wagons available.

FLEEING VICTIMS

Among the well-known society people forced to flee from their homes and summer cottages when the fire reached Blytheville canyon were the following:

James Jenkins and family, Eldridge Green and family, Major and Mrs. Andrew Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Demopsey, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Marsh, Rudolph Whiting, Mrs. Lovell White, Mrs. Abbey Howe, The Abbey, Miss Alice Owen and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harris.

The Misses Doyle, L. W. Harris and family.

FIRE CUTS SWATH

At 7 o'clock last night W. S. McLellan, a forest ranger, was sent out by Mayor Klyce of Mill Valley to survey the advancing flames.

McLellan went up Blytheville canyon to Devil's Slide gulch and found that the White place was still out of the fire lines.

On the grounds he found William Tierney and his wife, caretakers of the place.

They had taken from the house all the art objects, paintings and silver ware, the latter being buried in the garden.

McLellan tried to persuade Mrs. Tierney to leave the dangerous position.

"No," replied the woman stoutly. "I will stay until the end and fight the fire, and if the place goes I can jump in the ornamental pond and stay there until the fire has passed over." The Whites are traveling in the East and were last heard from at Niagara Falls.

DANCE ORDINANCE IS BRANDED 'JOKE'

License of $5 Necessary for Each Dance Under Present Law.

The dance ordinance, passed about a year ago when pressure was brought to bear upon the city council by several religious organizations and civic and social welfare clubs, came under fire this morning when Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen filed a letter with the city council concerning two permits for dance clubs.

"The ordinance as it reads now is a joke," declared Petersen. "It should be entirely revamped."

Petersen specifically called attention to the fact that a license of $5 is imposed for a permit, and that he has applications from two clubs for a yearly permit each, permitting practically an unlimited number of dances. "This is allowed under the ordinance, although it was the intent of the bill and was enforced to some extent in that way, that a license of $5 was charged for each dance."

The matter was referred to Commissioner of Finance John Forrest. The two applications were from the Pacific club and the Magnolia social club.

REYNOLDS SPEAKS ON CURRENCY MEASURE

DULUTH, Minn., July 10.—George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National Bank of Chicago, spoke before the Minnesota Bankers' association on the "Administration of the Currency Bill" and had both praise and criticism for the measure.

Foremost among his criticisms and by way of suggestions for improvement, Mr. Reynolds pointed out that the seven members of the proposed federal reserve board would always be on the side of the president to the exclusion of the deliberations of the board of bankers and business men generally and that this would be calculated "to place our whole system of banking under the domination and control of a purely political board."

COMMITTEES MEET; REPORT PROGRESS

The various committees of the banquet and entertainment to be given by the Navy Josephus McDaniels, July 16, met today in the chamber of commerce, and reported to the general committee the progress that was being made. The fund-raising campaign is being carried on vigorously, and so far the finance committee feels that its work is bearing fruit. Victor Metcalf was in the chair.

POLICE BUREAU TO PROTECT YOUNG WOMEN

Feminine Section of Police Department Will Be Created.

Conference Between City Officials and Women to Be Held Tomorrow.

The woman's auxiliary to the police department, which is to be a bureau of prevention of social crime and of protection for women, will be the subject of a conference between city officials and the committee of five women who have asked for the creation of the feminine section of the police department. The conference members of Mayor Frank K. Mott and will be attended by the mayor, commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. C. Turner and by the committee representing the women.

The committee of women is headed by Mrs. A. Crawford, the other members being Miss Bessie J. Wood, Dr. Minora K. Kibbe, Mrs. R. C. Young and Miss Ida Green. The women asked for the appointment of a police woman chief to head a bureau of two women and a commissioner. The proposed bureau is to be run independently, rather than as an adjunct to the police department, if the plan is adopted as proposed by the commissioners.

TO PROTECT GIRLS.

It is the plan of the women to work out a system of crime prevention, with special reference to the protection of young girls. The problem of white slavery will be studied, and an effort will be made to devise means of preventing girls being led into temptation. The women plan to have special supervision over crimes involving women, especially those which have a special significance with regard to the fact that their problems are different from those which confront men.

That Chief Petersen was at first somewhat opposed to the creation of an independent police department was intimated some days ago, but it is understood that the chief has withdrawn his objections, and that Turner will be made over-chief, as head of the department of public health and safety, of the woman chief of police and her department.

GYM CONTRACT FOR COPS ENDS

City Agreement Not Renewed With Y. M. C. A. Owing to Stringency.

Policemen who have been exercising in the big gymnasium at the Young Men's Christian Association and enjoying the swimming pool for the past year will be forced to use some other method to retain the fitness and gentility of figure which they have attained. The contract between the city and the association has expired, and because the budget for the coming year has not been made out, the financial situation is still that of considerable stringency. Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Fred C. Turner has advised against at this time renewing the contract.

The matter was brought to Turner's attention today by Chief of Police Walter J. Petersen, who suggested that the gym drills had been a great good in the department. Turner has suggested that for the time being the patrolmen may go to the High school gymnasium during the vacation or to the Mosswood park playground.

SENATOR PIERCE ON VISIT; ENTHUSIASTIC

A visit to the chamber of commerce was made yesterday by Senator George W. Pierce of Yolo county, who is an enthusiastic booster for good roads. He had a conference with Secretary Denison with regard to closer cooperation in the matter of the state highway, which is to be constructed across Yolo basin, practically paralleling the railroad grade from Sacramento to Davis, then southwesterly to Dixon and Elmira, from which the state highway will continue to Fairfield and Benicia, crossing by ferry to Martinez and connecting with roads leading to Oakland.

MORE PARK LIGHTS TO REDUCE SOCIAL EVIL

Park Commissioner James P. Edoff held a conference with Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. C. Turner this morning to ask that more lights be installed in Mosswood and Lakeside parks. Edoff declared that the efficient lighting of the parks would reduce crime, and that this was peculiarly the case in regard to offenses connected with the social evil. He stated that there was a large percentage more crime committed in the districts that are poorly lighted than in those which are given good lights. The request was taken under advisement.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE WITH CHLOROFORM

Woman Is Seen Taking Poison by Lad Who Reports to Police.

After renting a room at the Argue house, 1450 Broadway, Mrs. Katherine Peters, 37 Adeline street, went to the drug store at the corner of Thirteenth and Broadway, purchased some chloroform and proceeded to swallow some of the liquid while standing on the corner. The woman then started to run and rushed into the lodging house in which she had rented a room. In her confusion she entered a room adjoining the one she had rented, and locked herself in.

Passers by in the street who had seen her swallow the poison notified the police and she was traced to the lodging house. A search was made of the rooms before the locked door was discovered.

The police were forced to go to the story above and gain access to the room by climbing down the fire escape. They found Mrs. Peters lying on the bed. She was taken to the receiving hospital. A. L. Wellington, proprietor of the lodging house, states that the woman rented the room shortly before one o'clock and that he was first notified that she had returned and was being sought by the police shortly after 1. No reason is given for the woman's act. She was found in the room by Patrolmen People and Inspectors J. Flynn and Dennis Holland.

The woman was seen to take the poison by Eddie Murphy, a boy employed by an Oakland newspaper. Young Murphy saw the woman after taking the drug run out into the street and jump in front of a passing automobile. The motorist saw her danger and threw on the emergency brakes in time to save the woman's life. She then started up the street, followed by Murphy. The boy watched her enter the lodging house and then notified the police.

(Lucky) Baldwin, who left an estate valued at $25,000,000. Mrs. McLaughry inherited a fortune estimated at close to $10,000,000.

WILL NOT BE RECONCILED.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—One of the attorneys representing Mrs. McLaughry, who interviewed this afternoon, stated positively that there was no reconciliation in sight. "A reconciliation would be impossible," he asserted, "we are going ahead with this case. We are making our plans now. I have examined the answer filed by Mrs. McLaughry and while I do not care to say anything in preparation to proceed."

TROUBLE OVER FINANCES.

Prior to her father's death, Mrs. McLaughry lived quietly with her husband at his home, 17 Plaza Drive, Claremont, but later they removed to a home on the Baldwin estate near Los Angeles. The trouble which arose between them was said to have grown out of McLaughry's handling of his wife's estate interests. Their indifference developed into a quarrel over the divorce suit which was filed in Los Angeles county on June 14 last.

Mrs. McLaughry charged her husband with extreme cruelty in his actions toward her, stating that she had been made a nervous wreck to the extent that she was afflicted with "hysteria," "better known as the 'shingles'." She alleged that McLaughry had been harsh and insulting to her in the presence of strangers and that he had followed her about the house, harassing her constantly. Plaintiff referred in particular to an incident which attracted wide attention last May when the husband "kidnaped" the two children and took them from Los Angeles to the McLaughry ranch near Galt, Sacramento county. There, guarded by armed detectives, he stood off the efforts of detectives employed by his wife to obtain the children.

EVADES DETECTIVES.

During a hot pursuit in automobiles along the country roads near Galt, McLaughry narrowly escaped being overtaken. A farmer friend steered his machine suddenly in front of an automobile containing detectives, forcing them to slow down and keep in the rear while the fugitive machine entered the ranch safely. Watch was kept for several days until Sheriff David Ahern threatened to arrest both parties for disturbing the peace of the neighborhood.

Recourse was then taken to the courts and the matter was brought up in San Francisco several weeks ago, with the result that the mother was given temporary custody of the children. It has been intimated that the couple would affect a reconciliation, but from the statements of the court at the time of the Galt affair, when she said that she was through with her husband, it was concluded that they would finally go separate ways.

That her husband had attempted to force her to settle upon a vast claim at the time of her divorce proceedings, which she had asserted by Mrs. McLaughry and as emphatically denied by her husband.

DENIES CRUELTY.

In his answer to the suit which was filed yesterday, McLaughry denied his wife's allegations of extreme cruelty and asserted that her behavior toward him was entirely unwarranted. In her complaint she charged that he had not lived with her since last September and asserted that there was no community property. The defendant did not deny either of the accusations. Last September, McLaughry took the children to his Berkeley home and his wife followed from Los Angeles and took apartments at the Elsie hotel. The children were closely guarded by detectives at that time and there were rumors of divorce then which were set at rest for the time being without the trouble reaching such a crisis as that of last May at Galt.

Clara Baldwin Stocker, who is now building a home place near Los Angeles, is a sister of Mrs. McLaughry. Her share in the estate amounts to more than $10,000,000. Recently she returned from Europe, where she purchased diamonds and other jewelry valued at more than $500,000. She travels in a palatial private car on her trips back and forth across the continent.

WHAT'S MONEY FOR?

"What's money good for if not to spend and enjoy?" Mrs. Stocker is said to have told friends upon her arrival in Los Angeles from Europe.

"What's money good for if you can't hold on to it?" is the way Hui McLaughry looks upon the attitude of his wife expressed by her recent statements at the time of their open breach over the Galt affair.

The couple were married in Carson City, Nev., in October, 1900. McLaughry was then an assistant in the San Francisco postoffice, with a commonplace salary, and in spite of the fact that his bride had been accustomed to all that the wealth of "Lucky" Baldwin could bestow, she made her home happy for several years while the parent frowned upon the match. As Anita Baldwin she had attended the old Florida Seminary, formerly located near Telegraph avenue and Twenty-ninth street, in this city. That was more than 20 years ago, when she was a girl in her teens.

While McLaughry did not ask for alimony in his answer, it is believed that he has received some large monetary consideration in the settlement with his beautiful wife.

NEW YORK, July 10.—A. B. "There is nothing pending in the way of arbitration," they said. "The railroad men have put their decision up to the managers and the managers have turned them down. At this time we are not interested in any legislation."

LEPER ESCAPES FROM QUARANTINE IN BOAT

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., July 10.—Investigation conducted by Surgeon Baylis H. Earle of the United States Public Health Service into the escape from the Diamond Point Quarantine Station of Dominick Pitter, the Minneapolis leper, developed that he was taken in a small boat from the station to the mainland where he hired a buggy and drove to Port Townsend Saturday night. Here he boarded a steamer for Seattle and is believed to be in hiding in that city.

Pitter is a cook by trade and as a recent most of his money to reach Seattle. It is feared he will seek employment to earn money to reach his home in Minneapolis. Surgeon Earle has sent a description of the escaped leper to the State Health officer and to the railroad's agents so they can keep a lookout for Pitter. It is said that his condition is such that he is a danger to the community.

LAW CAUSES TRUST COMPANY TO CLOSE

Portland Concern Asks for Appointment of a Receiver.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 10.—The First Trust company of Portland closed its doors today and asked for the appointment of a receiver. The refusal of the state commissioner of corporations to issue it a permit under a new law that requires trust companies to have a capital of $100,000 is said to have been the cause of the company's decision to liquidate.

Officials stated that trustees appointed by the stockholders were now winding up the company's affairs. They said creditors would be paid in full. The company was formed with a capital of $500,000 which subsequently was reduced to $200,000. As a result of this reduction it was unable, under the new law, to continue in business.

BIG TOUR CAUSES COMMENT IN EAST

The Gossip of Motor Centers Told by E. P. Brinegar After Visit.

(By EDWARD CRINNICK.)

Interest throughout the east is at fever heat over the movement of the Indianapolis automobile manufacturers' touring party that left Indianapolis on July 1 en route to Oakland, headed by Carl G. Fisher, founder of the ocean to ocean highway project, according to E. P. Brinegar, president of the Pioneer Automobile company, and the Pioneer Motor Truck corporation of San Francisco, who returned yesterday after a five-weeks absence.

Brinegar, who has been in the automobile centers and made his semi-annual visit to the Chalmers factory in which he is a director.

In speaking of the Chalmers company he said: "The present season, which will close about September 1, has been the most successful season for the Chalmers over last season. The demand for Chalmers cars is so great that they are planning an increase of production of 25 per cent for next season and will build 10,000 Chalmers cars and possibly more."

"Although general conditions in other lines of business have been rather quiet, the automobile industry has held its own among the standard factories and nothing but optimism exists and all are planning for an increased output next season. The manufacturers are really beginning to appreciate the fact that the automobile is a close competitor of the motor truck."

Brinegar said that the Chalmers company has taken suggestions from us in the east and we are very pleased with the conditions as we do in this state and I heard more than one manufacturer say that an automobile that would stand up under conditions of California and Nevada would stand up anywhere in the world. This feeling exists so much that I know of two manufacturers that are planning to send their experimental cars to California in order to try them out under all conditions.

Alighting from the car and walking back to the place where her bag lay, Mrs. Gleason realized that she was in the hands of robbers. The total receipts for that period were $124,925.32 and the operating and maintenance expenses $103,925.32, leaving a surplus of receipts over expenditures of $21,000. From this must be deducted the interest charges amounting to $9,647.67, leaving the total net profit $11,352.65.

BOY KNOCKED DOWN BY AUTO; DIES IN HOSPITAL

NEW YORK, July 10.—Robert Bass, 12 years old, of 176 Atlantic avenue, Brooklyn, died early today in St. John's Hospital from a fractured skull, received when knocked down by an automobile, owned and driven by Louis Einton of 371 Clinton street.

The boy was skating at Herkimer street and E. 14th avenue about 5 o'clock last night, when the automobile came along at moderate speed. Einton says the boy skated directly into the car, as if he had lost control over his feet, and that there was no chance to avoid running into him.

Young Bass was thrown several feet and picked up unconscious, and hurried to the hospital in the car. But all efforts of the doctors to save him were futile.

BELIEVES STEWARD KILLED SELF WHEN DESPONDENT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—That Chief Steward Harry Donahue, who disappeared at sea while the liner Mongolia was steaming between Yokohama and Honolulu, leaped over the side in a sudden fit of despondency, is the belief of his brother officers. Upon the arrival of the Mongolia from the Orient yesterday, Captain Emory Rice presented an official report, the substance of which stated that the known circumstances of the disappearance pointed to suicide. The officers scouted the theory that the well-known steamship man was the victim of a plot on the part of members of the notorious trans-Pacific opium smuggling ring.

Donahue disappeared from the ship early on the morning of June 28, as last seen by three Chinese to whom Captain Rice said he had encountered the chief steward at 5:30 o'clock, clad in his pajamas and a nightgown, walking about the main deck.

At 4:30 o'clock the steward was seen by the white deck watchman and two hours before that he had been to the pantry for some sandwiches.

HOLD-UP MEN THROW COINLESS MAN IN BAY

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—A pair of waterfront pirates whose occupation in life is to lay in wait for sailors and rob them of their wages attacked Jacob Wind on Greenwich street wharf at an early hour this morning and threw him into the bay.

Wind, a 40-year-old man, who had no money and when he refused to grant the request of the robbers for coin, they seized him and forced him overboard. Being a strong swimmer, the sailor was able to reach a landing and he walked dripping to the Harbor hospital, where he was supplied with dry clothing and given a warm rub-down.

SCHOOL AND PLAYGROUND

BUSHROD PYGMIES TAKE TWO GAMES

Oakland, July 10.—A score of 36 to 2 and on Monday repeated the trick to a score of 36 to 2. The All Stars are improving fast and declare that they will get the Bushrod team into camp on Monday the 14th and beat the Live Oaks.

Bushrod Pygmies play Lawson of Lawson and a 7-0 game is expected.

Last Saturday, the Midgets of Park Boulevard and Bella Vista got together in a very close and exciting game on the latter's diamond. Park Boulevard shows promise of a fast and clever team in the summer league series. The defeat on Saturday was due to the organized condition, and good hitting of the home team. The visitors also showed that they could hit Lippold, the home team's twirler, shows great promise as a pitcher. The score would undoubtedly have been closer than 19 to 9 had not Taylor of the visiting team fallen and sustained an injury to his knee in the last inning.

LEAVES SCHOOL—BUT! IS STILL AN ATHLETE

JOSEPHINE KOESSEL

Josephine Koesel, who was one of the star basketball players of the John C. Fremont high school during her freshman year, has left school but has retained her interest in outdoor athletics.

For the first time since 1910 basketball was played in the boys of the John C. Fremont high school last semester. Five games were won and three were lost, finishing the team with a record of 62.5 per cent.

The basketball team of the John C. Fremont high school was admirably supported during the spring term and received credit upon the institution's athletic division, and collectively the squad did splendid work. Many of the valuable members of the team will not return to school upon the opening of the fall session, which will occur in August. Among them will be Richard Bauer, who was graduated with the class of June 1912.

MANY TO TRY OUT FOR HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETIC "O"

Who will wear the big "O" which is one of the honor emblems in athletics given in the Oakland High School to the boys? Many boys will enter trials for the track events next semester, when there will be a diversity of outdoor sports, which will test the skill of the stalwart youth.

The following are the following: Baseball—Bob Adams '14, James Gilley '15, Charles Cowan '15, William Joseph '14, Joseph Malory '14, George Cunha '14, George Brown '15, Robert Radke '14, Roy Fowler '14, Guy Galden '14, Harry Woodhouse '15 and Raynor Kimball '15.

Track—Edward Skinner '13, Edward Melvin '13, and Harold Nold '13. Harold Blott who was a member of the class of 1913, has received the big "O" for his brilliant record in debating.

FILIPINOS NOT REARY TO GOVERN SELVES

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—That the Philippines would be slaughtered by the wild Moro tribes if they withdrew from the protecting arm of the United States is the belief of Professor Dwight L. Elmendorf, who was here yesterday on a tour of the world.

"The present system of governing the Philippines is a success," declared Elmendorf. "You can't give them their independence and expect them to get along. You could expect a baby to run a six-horse-power motor car."

If we were to give them their own way the Philippines would be wiped out by the Moros. Stay-at-home politicians should back up those who have been appointed to govern rather than interfering. The idea of self-government for the Philippines is a failure.

Elmendorf is merely an illustration of the esteem in which the Japanese hold themselves. To many of them the United States is on a par with a South American republic. We should be so prepared that no country would entertain a thought of hostilities.

The Effects of Opiates.

INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these causes cause changes in the function and growth of the child which are likely to become permanent. Chronic opium poisoning, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life, is a common result of the use of opiates. It is a terrible disease, and one that should be avoided. It is a terrible disease, and one that should be avoided. It is a terrible disease, and one that should be avoided.

The Gasoline of Quality

There is gasoline and gasoline. There is the pure, high grade product and there is the inferior grade, often a "blend" or mixture of a little good gasoline with inferior grades.

RED CROWN is a thoroughly high grade gasoline. It is the best that we can make—a homogeneous, straight distilled refinery product—not a mixture. It is the "old reliable" gasoline that keeps the engine running smoothly in all altitudes and climates. Its absolute uniformity makes readjustment of the carburetor unnecessary.

RED CROWN is scientifically made—a product of many years of study and experiment. It gives most power, greatest mileage. We back it with our unqualified guarantee.

BLOODHOUNDS LOSE TRAIL IN GRAIN FIELD

Special Officers Follow Tracks
of Man Who Short Cir-cued Wires.

Long Fish Cord Used to Bring Power Lines Together in Elmhurst.

Leashed bloodhounds were placed upon the trail of the man who last night caused two short circuits of the power wires of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company in the annexed district, throwing a portion of the city into darkness and causing not captured, as the trail was lost in a big field, but it is anticipated from the manner in which the dogs picked up the trail and followed it that it will be possible to effect a capture if the offense is repeated. The bloodhounds were in charge of special officers and were rushed to the scene immediately after the power lines had been tampered with.

The long fish cord used in bringing the power wires together was used to give the dogs the scent. They followed this easily for a while, but became confused where the trail had been crossed by others.

The power wires were short circuited at 10:30 and at 12:15 last night, on each occasion tying up the Elmhurst power plant of the company. The first tampering with the wires was done at Ninety-sixth avenue about two blocks east of East Fourteenth street. The second was at One Hundred and First avenue and East Fourteenth street.

The wire tamperers used a clever method to effect their purpose. By using a heavy fishing line, a loop was thrown over the power wires. The loop was left loose on a running noose, and the line was carried over a block away before it was drawn taut, bringing the heavy tension power wires together. The fishing line used at both places was found and will be used as a clue in tracing the culprits.

Elmhurst, San Leandro and other sections of the annexed district were thrown into darkness for several hours. The car service was held up and passengers who started from Oakland at midnight did not reach home till almost two o'clock.

Joseph Selon and Anthony Boroski were arrested last night as a result of union trouble, each on the complaint of the other. Charges of battery and drunkenness were filed.

ENDEAVORERS FILL CITY'S CHURCHES

Committee Meetings, Addresses and Papers Features At Convention.

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—Every Protestant church in the city was utilized today in carrying out the second day's program of the twenty-sixth annual convention of the Christian Endeavor Society.
Thousands of delegates took active part in committee meetings and heard addresses and papers read by the pastors in attendance. The seating capacity of every edifice was taxed.

Although it was estimated that 10,000
delegates were on the ground yesterday, this was increased by hundreds today by the arrival of special trains from the north, one of them bringing D. O. J. Mc-Donald of Toronto, one of the most prominent Christian Endeavor workers in Canada.

The eastern horizon had hardly begun to redden before the thousands of delegates and visitors to the convention were astir, hurrying to sunrise "quiet hour"
services.

Then followed sectional meetings in twenty-three churches, in Auditorium Endicott, the big assembly tent, and in a downtown theater. There were also overlook meetings and religious exercises
in the streets.

Plans for increasing the efficiency of the church and the spreading of the gospel through the agencies of the home,
the school and the press, were discussed
at a pastor's conference.

Problems of soul saving were wrestled with by clergymen and Christian Endeavor lay workers. Personal purity and the social evil were subjects to which another sectional meeting gave its attention.

The state convention of the California Christian Endeavor Union was held this afternoon at Auditorium Endicott.

RELICS OF FORMER DAYS RECOVERED

While engaged in wrecking the old city hall workmen yesterday afternoon found an old book with discolored pages, which had fallen into a nook in the walls of the old offices of the chief of police. Over thirty years ago the then chief of police lost his book of records, and frantic search was made for it from basement
to attic, but no trace of it was found.
The book contained important data concerning police affairs. The book found yesterday will be placed among the archives of the city.

They also found a piece of the council chamber railing of solid mahogany,
which was rescued from the original city
hall when it burned many years ago.
This will be made into cases for the mayor and commissioners, and cap each with a silver head bearing suitable inscriptions.

Declaration of Principles Is Contained In Convention Resolutions.

BULLETIN

SALT LAKE, Utah, July 10.—Joseph Swain, president of Swarthmore college, was elected president of the National Educational Association by an unanimous vote here today. Grace M. Shepherd, state superintendent of Idaho schools, was re-elected treasurer. The committee of Ann Arbor is continued as secretary, his election being by appointment. Alex, president University of Maine; president W. B. Owen, Chicago; secretary, David B. Johnson, president Winthrop college, South Carolina; member executive committee.

An innovation in the report of the committee on resolutions at the general session was that it took the form of a declaration of principles, twelve phases of education being treated in separate reports.

The report of the school health committee stated that the women of the Federated Clubs of southern states bid fair to outshine those of the north with their health campaigns. The Western Education Association, which was to have met today, announced that it had been decided not to hold sessions while in Salt Lake city. It was denied that cancellation was due to fear of religious controversy.

DOPE FIEND SCARES CROWD WITH FAKE BOMB

Crowds gathered at Tenth and Franklin streets yesterday when word was received that a madman was about to place a bomb under a building at that place. A man carrying an electrical capacitor with several wires which had the appearance of fuses protruding from it, rushed up the street and the passerby fled in terror. The police were notified that the man was attempting to throw a bomb into the crowd and Patrolman C. F. Hoxley and other police were hurried to the scene. Hoxley succeeded in capturing William Smith who has been in trouble with the

NARROWLY ESCAPED INJURY IN CRASH

SACRAMENTO, July 10.—Mrs. Maude Blakeley and Mrs. C. A. Smith of this city narrowly escaped death yesterday when an automobile in which they were riding collided with one driven by Dr. Emmett Hixford, 1796 California street, San Francisco, and turned completely over. The women were thrown out, but escaped with minor bruises. The accident is alleged to have been due to careless driving by 16-year-old Eddie Hixford. Doctor Hixford's car was not damaged.

DEPOT AGENT FOUND; OPERATOR SUSPECTED

GRAND JUNCTION, Idaho, July 10.—E. B. Erwin, depot agent of the Idaho, Washington and Northern railroad here, was found murdered yesterday morning by members of a freight crew. The body when found had three bullet wounds in it. Nothing, except Erwin's revolver, was missing from the depot. A telegraph operator, who had been around the depot, is being sought by the sheriff of Kootenai county.

STRONG ARMED WOMAN ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—Mrs. Mary Sime, who was refused a warrant for her husband, Dan, a house-mover, and who by means of judicious punches, scientifically delivered, succeeded in overawing her spouse at the Hall of Justice, attempted suicide last night. Sime, under the admonitions of the court, placed about him an armour of reserve and managed to defend himself from his better-half. Mrs. Sime, becoming despondent and deciding that the court would not help her, attempted to commit suicide.

RAILROAD MAN COMMITS SUICIDE

DENVER, Colo., July 10.—Paul McKinnon, chief clerk of the passenger department of the Rock Island Railroad in this city, committed suicide in his home last evening. Failing health which recently compelled him to resign his position was the probable cause. He locked himself in the bathroom of his home and cut the arteries of both wrists with a penknife.

INSPECTOR ASKS THAT OPERATOR BE FINED

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—United States district inspector R. M. Wolpert has filed complaint with the U. S. marshal against the Wireless Company and Charles Stims, wireless operator on steamer Hyades, alleging that Stims was employed by the Marconi Company in that capacity when he presented himself for examination. Chief Woolverton a short time ago and surrendered his certificate, which expired on December 13 of last year.

those whose limbs are not so limber, irrespective of age, it must be very trying. Those attending the concerts, however, have but the one alternative—a seat in the glaring sun. As a result, the grounds surrounding the band stand presented the strange anomaly of all benches being empty, save a half dozen or so which the public dragged into the shade of the band stand, and the shaded lawns being bestrewn with visibly tortured auditors who refused seats directly facing the glowing sun.

An encouraging sign of advancing musical taste was also in evidence; several members, undisputably of a "popular" character, were concluded amid an absolute absence of applause, despite their splendid rendition by the able musicians. From this it is to be inferred that the "popular" taste has evolved and is now appreciative of compositions of greater musical value. It is a healthy sign which should not be ignored.

DEFENSE OF LOWLY PRETZEL

For some reason unknown you have guns they might assume a position of importance as a breakfast filler, but do not pretend to rank with olives, popcorn, and other foodstuffs.

Kansas City Star correspondent. Particularly you have reiterated the statement that pretzels should not be consumed with food. Plainly you mistake the whole purpose of pretzels and display a gross ignorance in your estimate of their sentimental and economic value. In their architectural design pretzels are topographically illustrative of the evolutionary process described by a German gentleman wending his homeward way after a schlagfest. Furthermore, worn as nose glasses, pretzels are highly decorative and eminently becoming to certain styles of masculine beauty. So much for their artistic value. As to their nutritive qualities, no one, so far as I know, has set up the contention that pretzels are a food. Shredded, toasted or fired from

of the drinking public. Pretzels are used by convivial persons in acquiring a "load" in the same manner that fell wads are used in loading a shotgun shell. They add nothing to the explosive force of the charge but are highly efficient in preventing an indiscriminate and disastrous mixing of the ammunition. Lastly, pretzels are the life preservers of those seagoing persons who may be found clinging to leaky schooners on the harbor bar where the foam flies highest. Many a man, tossed down for the third time, has been tossed a buoyant pretzel and has saved. Critical sin, refrain from further disrespectful remarks with reference to the useful pretzel. Cultivate it, study it, familiarize yourself with its homely virtues and you will learn to love it.

A RESTAURANT ORDER IN JAPAN

A traveler has written an amusing account of his efforts to get something to eat when on a visit to Japan. In company with an artist friend he made his way into a teahouse, where the two men were ushered by a girl into a room simply out tastefully furnished.

"The girl went out, and presently returned with a lacquered tray containing two very small and shallow cups of colored liquid and Japan tea which she knelt and presented to us. We tried to explain to her in English, French, German, Russian and the sign language that we were famishing and wanted something to eat, but our efforts to be intelligible elicited nothing save a look of embarrassment and a shy Japanese smile.

"Try her with pictures," I suggested.

"You'll never put your artistic talent to better use. Draw a fish in a egg, a lot of bread and a bottle of beer, and I'll go through the motions of eating and drinking them. That ought to fetch her."

"And it did."

"A gleam of intelligence and pleased comprehension came into her face as she recognized the familiar objects, and with a giggle of delight she rose to her feet and rushed away to the kitchen to show the pictures to the other maids. When she returned, at the expiration of half an hour we expected, of course, that she would bring the dinner. She offered us instead two fresh and neatly folded bath gowns, a couple of Turkish towels and a cake of soap."

REST CURES FOR RAZORS

It is well known that our metals are conductors of electricity. Steel is an excellent conductor, and when this metal is fashioned into tools with sharp edges the electric current that is continually passing through the metal will leave the body at the sharp point or edge.

Barbers tell us the razor gets edged and is improved after a rest. This is true in a scientific sense. It is not exactly a rest that the razor needs, although that term will express it pretty well.

It seems that any razor, after constant use on the human face, will become an excellent conductor for electric current.

When the razor lies idle and the electric current is passing off at the edge the particles are being toned and tempered, and the edge actually becomes more smooth and really sharper and more fit to remove the beard.

It is claimed that a razor wrapped in rubber cloth and placed in a drawer away from any damp will not be benefited by the rest as well as a razor that is simply laid away rather carelessly without any insulation. It is in the same if the razor is immersed in oil.

When you have a razor that is not doing its duty, it is probably the electric current passing through the metal. The metal is being heated and the particles are being toned and tempered, and the edge actually becomes more smooth and really sharper and more fit to remove the beard.

TOO MANY NAMES FOR ANY ONE WOMAN

Mrs. Dickerson Caldwell Bill
Billings Nickolson Comes Into Court.

The axiom "what's in a name" was exemplified yesterday afternoon in Judge Quinn's courtroom.

Mrs. Lucille Dickerson, acting as a witness for the state against William Caldwell, who is accused of having married Mrs. Dickerson when he knew that she already had a husband, was placed on the stand and she gave some interesting examples of how quickly one can change their name when he or she desires.

Caldwell and Mrs. Dickerson were released from their first husband and according to Caldwell, neglected to inform him of this. It appeared from the testimony submitted yesterday by Mrs. Dickerson that she and Caldwell had been close companions in San Mateo long before the nuptial knot was tied. It was necessary to get married in order that communal bliss might be enjoyed. Mrs. Dickerson remarked, during her testimony, "It was the only thing to do that would permit us to live in San Mateo."

People might see the announcement in the newspapers and so, we did."

SHE PLEADED GUILTY.

The marriage took place about two months ago. A few days ago Mrs. Dickerson-Caldwell was arrested in Stockton on a charge of bigamy. She pleaded guilty, but declared that Caldwell was acquainted with the fact that she had not divorced her former husband. Caldwell was subsequently arrested in this city and his trial came up yesterday afternoon.

He was represented by Attorney James W. Hovenshine while the state's interests were looked after by Attorney Billy Satterwhite. Mrs. Dickerson arrived here yesterday in custody returned last night to that city. The trial took up the entire afternoon, and of Attorney A. D. Philo in Stockton and it was necessary to put over the hearing until Saturday morning at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Dickerson-Caldwell afforded an amusing afternoon to the court attaches. Judge Quinn himself relaxed his features into a smile several times during the course of the witness' testimony.

Mrs. Dickerson-Caldwell very unconcernedly admitted that she had used numerous names. In fact, she couldn't remember all of the names of the names she had assumed. Her Oakland names were Dickerson and Caldwell, in Stockton it was Caldwell; in San Francisco, Bill; in Sacramento, Billings, and in San Mateo, Nickolson. "I don't know," she summed up her statements.

MARRIED LIFE FAILURE.

Mrs. Dickerson-Caldwell was married to Clarence Dickerson in 1911. Married life did not come up to expectations and a "separation" followed. Then followed the marriage in this city several weeks after which, in rapid succession, followed arrests of both principals.

In speaking of hubby No. 1, Mrs. Dickerson declared that he had "a habit of taking trips to Reno, Nev., and other places outside of the state. When questioned as to the reason of these pilgrimages, Mrs. Dickerson said she did not know, although she believed he had gone there for the purpose of getting a divorce. "She was asked what gave her this idea. Oh," she replied, "so many friends who had gone to Reno on errands of this kind."

MISSOURI GOVERNOR WILL SHOW ROAD BUILDERS

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 10.—Supplementing an announcement yesterday that he would set apart two days next month for the working of roads by citizens throughout the state, Governor Major today said he also would call upon various county courts to prepare for the handling of the thousands of volunteer road workers.

The governor said he now expected at least 500,000 men and boys would respond for the work.

He said he expected to get out himself and work on the Cole county roads with pick and shovel and would urge every state and county official to do likewise.

SUNDAY CIVIL BILL WILL BE AID TO ISLANDS

HONOLULU, July 10.—Considerable has been the rejoicing in Honolulu since the cable news that President Wilson has signed the sundry civil appropriation bill which provides for the various army posts in the territory.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Secretary Daniels announced today that he would leave Washington on Saturday night for a tour of inspection of Pacific Navy yards and stations. PROTEST AGAINST ADDITIONAL FARE

East of Davis Street Residents of San Leandro Lodge Complaint.

SAN LEANDRO, July 10.—Protesting against paying an additional 5 cents from Davis street, San Leandro, to the eastern limits of the town, a number of prominent residents who live east of Davis street have asked the town trustees to take action in the matter. A committee has been appointed consisting of members of the town trustees, and the matter of the 5 cent fare to the eastern limits of the town should be taken up with the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway or the Railroad Commission. The following are members of the committee: Mayor J. J. Gill, Dr. Charles Colman, J. M. Santana and H. P. W. Helms.

The trouble which has occasioned the complaint came out of the recent decision of the Railroad Commission fixing Davis street, San Leandro, as the 5-cent limit from Oakland. While this was a big concession, the previous 5-cent limit being at Stanley Road, about half a mile east of Davis street, considered it a hardship that they should be compelled to pay an extra 5 cents for the short ride to the eastern limits of town. Davis street is situated in the center of the town. The residents who have lodged a protest state that they have to pay 5 cents for riding in the car even for one block past Davis street.

There will be all kinds of amusements and abundance of refreshments.

The following committee of Council No. 63 has the honor in charge: Mrs. Ella Hagerty, Mrs. Catherine Tierney, Mrs. Jessie Hooley and Mrs. C. M. Warner. Since its institution early in the present year the local council of the Young Ladies Institute has arranged many successful social functions, and next Sunday's picnic will prove no exception to the rule.

SAN LEANDRO, July 10.—A petition asking for the closing of saloons in San Leandro on Sunday, and other regulations of the liquor traffic has been presented to the town trustees, following immediately on a no-license election, when the town voted emphatically against the closing of the saloons.

The petition bears the names of 72 residents, and asks Sunday closing to be put to a vote at the next municipal election. The petition provides for the abolishing of side entrances to saloons, also "family entrances" and card rooms. Open fronts to saloons are asked to be made compulsory.

The petition was not presented through the Women's Christian Temperance Union, which conducted the campaign for the closing down of the saloons.

MELROSE OPPOSES WATER DISTRICT

Decided Vote Against Proposition Is Cast At Mass Meeting.

MELROSE, July 10.—A citizens' mass meeting held in Fremont High School last night under the auspices of the United Improvement Clubs East of Lake Merritt, voted against the proposed municipal water district by a large majority. The mass meeting was called by the Improvement clubs to hear what effect of the water district, but as it turned out the addresses were of a one-sided nature, and were as a rule antagonistic to the municipal water project.

Mayor Frank K. Mott and Engineer J. H. Dockweiler were invited to present the favorable side of the proposed water plan, but the two officials declined to themselves from attending the meeting. The speakers who disfavored the water district were Attorney Robert M. Rovee, Assemblyman George Genter of Berkeley and John Gelder.

Senator E. K. Strobridge spoke of the proposed district from the legislative point of view.

B. A. Gamble of the United Improvement Clubs presided at the meeting and was relieved by John W. Phillips.

Following the addresses, the viewpoint of several of the audience were taken on the question, and the proposed district found few supporters.

"GO TO THE SIERRAS"

Attorney Rovee pointed out that the water supply in Alameda county was inadequate to meet the needs of the people, and it would be more inadequate as time went on. "We will have to go to the Sierras. The water supply," he said, "is running out. People in the Sierras and Oakland will have to go. If we put money in water properties in Alameda county that money will be wasted. In my opinion it is the height of folly for the people to tie themselves up in buying over water to themselves."

Attorney Rovee said that if it was necessary to buy the water district, then the matter should be taken before the court in order to find out what the water properties were worth, and have a bond issue. Rovee spoke against having men in office as directors of the proposed municipal water district for a period of six years, which unlimited power, and stated that such would not be good for the people.

"Have every city own its own public utility, such as a water system, and as soon as our cities realize this the better it will be for them," said Senator E. K. Strobridge.

SPEAKS OF LEGISLATION.

The Senator related his endeavor to incorporate in the municipal water district bill the provision that the various districts should have the power to remain out of the water district if they saw fit, and were opposed to it in any way. That provision, the Senator thought, was a very fair and just one. People in the artesian belt around Mount Eden and Alameda were up in arms against the proposed water district, and had an idea that their artesian water would be taken from them for use in Oakland.

At the present time, the Senator thought, the people had a large say in the matter, and under the municipal water district the residents of the artesian belt would not know much difference from the present conditions. In regard to the question of whether the board of directors of the Municipal Water District would be limited away in the control of the district, Senator Strobridge said he thought the board of directors could be reached by the people by means of a referendum petition.

GELDER GIVES VIEWS.

Assemblyman George Gelder characterized the municipal water district as a "venture in a large scale of guesswork," said Gelder, "about the recall of the appointed officers of the water district, then the people should consider it dangerous to create such a district, unless they have a greater struggle hold upon the men who are to run it."

B. Bartling of the Hopkins Street Improvement Club said his district was starving for water, and in his opinion a water district of some kind was required.

In the opinion of ex-Councilman Voss, if a clear-cut proposition were put before the people of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and other towns in the county over the question of municipal water supply, the people would be willing to vote bonds for that purpose.

On a vote being taken the meeting voted against the proposed municipal water district.

SPEEDERS GATHERING EXPERIENCE IN HAYWARD

HAYWARD, July 10.—Bitter experience, it seems, is the only thing that will bring motorists to an understanding that motor traffic regulations are being enforced by Hayward authorities. Warning signs posted at each end of the highway "keep your mufflers closed" is ignored or overlooked by numbers of motorists, as the number of arrests testifies.

The following speeders were arrested by Deputy Marshall Joseph Mendonca during the last few days, and forfeited their bail money: A. Smith, C. Sampson, Andrew Bancroft, G. Frear, A. Larsen, W. Ross, O. Gata, J. Soares and A. Grande.

WILL PROSECUTE COACHING SCHOOLS

Postal Authorities to Issue Fraud Orders Against Several Concerns.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—So many ingenious and misleading communications have been sent out by correspondence and other coaching schools to work money from the 20,000 fourth class postmasters who eventually will be required to take civil service examinations, that the civil service commission has made complaint to the postal authorities. It is expected that prosecutions will follow a set of fraud orders will be issued against the publications of several of these "educational" institutions.

One coaching school went so far as to send out notices to postmasters in imitation of civil service publications in which it was stated that examinations would soon be held and directing them to inquire at once for instructions. Another concern offered for $3 to send postmasters sample examination questions and other information, all of which can be obtained free from the civil service commission.

So many inquiries have been received concerning these schools that a circular letter has been prepared by the commission to answer them.

HONOLULU IS AFTER HEARTLESS AUTOISTS

HONOLULU, July 10.—For the third time within as many weeks the joy riders have claimed a victim in Honolulu. In each instance the injured man has been left to fight his way through the revolvers continuing on their way. Feeling runs high as a result of the latest accident of this kind. A young Japanese was found, about 3 a. m., lying in the middle of the road in an unconscious condition. He was immediately removed to the hospital, but died without gaining consciousness.

A careful examination of the spot at which he was found failed to show any signs of his having been struck there, and it is the opinion of the police that his murderers struck him at a point of the outskirts of the city and carried the body into town, leaving it to appear that he had met with an accident where found.

Several accidents are under suspicion and it is the expectation of the police that an arrest will be made soon. This will give the authorities an opportunity to bring the charge of second degree murder against the guilty party. Unless a victim of such an accident is killed, there is no law that will impose anything more than a short term in jail.

FIREMAN HURT WHEN ACID EXPLODES

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—The explosion of a vat of nitric acid in the warehouses of the McPike Drug Company caused J. A. P. Britt, a fireman attached to engine company No. 2, residing at 2621 San Jose avenue, to be taken to the Harbor hospital this morning overcome by the fumes. Britt, with numerous other firemen, was at work in an effort to prevent a spread of the flames and strong gases overcame him. He, however, was able to go to his quarters and it was not until 3 a. m. that he was taken to the hospital.

The seriousness of his condition was then realized and he was hurried to the hospital. A still alarm was turned in for the blaze and but little damage was done.

CONGRESS OVERLOOKS FUND.
WASHINGTON, July 10.—Congress forgot to appropriate $250,000 which was to be made available for the immediate use through the bill passed at the last session authorizing a $750,000 memorial amphitheater at Arlington National cemetery. The Arlington memorial commission made this discovery today. President Wilson will be asked to urge Congress to provide the money.

JAP COMMISSION REACHES SEATTLE

To Be Dined by Japanese Consul Tonight.

SEATTLE, July 10.—Tadao Kamaya, chief secretary of the Tokio Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. Juchio Soyeda, an honor member of that organization, who were commissioned to investigate the attitude of the Japanese of the United States relative to the California anti-alien land ownership legislation, arrived in Seattle yesterday after a tour of the country, extending from San Francisco to New York.

"Our trip was made primarily to give counsel and hear the pleas of the Japanese of this country, especially those in California," said Dr. Soyeda last night. "We spoke personally to our fellow countrymen and urged them to be calm and by all means to maintain order among themselves. The Japanese whom we have spoken to have promised to keep their confidence in this country, in themselves and in their employers. They think the justice of the United States will ultimately overwhelm those who made the anti-alien bill a law."

Mr. Kamaya and Dr. Soyeda will be entertained tonight at a dinner to be given by the Japanese consul at which Seattle business men and prominent members of the local Japanese colony will be present.

SECRETARY CONSIDERING PEARL HARBOR REPORT

WASHINGTON, July 10.—After discussing with Rear-Admiral Stanford, chief of the bureau of yards and docks, the report of the special board which investigated the accident to the Great Pearl harbor drydock, the secretary took the report with him when he left Washington for Seattle, a few days ago. He will study it during his trip, and will report to the president as to whether the effort shall be made to complete the work or whether it should be abandoned and a floating drydock substituted.

It is believed the civil engineers have suggested the acceptance of the construction of a graving dock, but with important changes in the methods of construction and the equipment, to meet the peculiar conditions at Pearl harbor.

EAGLE PASS, Texas, July 10.—Se-

300 MEET DEATH.

TUCSON, Ariz., July 10.—A belated communication from Guaymas in the hands of Mexican Consul Alsosie today says that 300 Constitutional soldiers met death in an effort to swim across the neck of the bay when the state troops were repulsed by a hidden mine mine in their attempt to enter the California gulf port.
The message states that General Ojeda, after his retreat to the Federal base, arranged an ambush to surprise the pursuing Constitutionalists and that 800 federalists fell upon the state troops, who fled in disorder, leaving many dead and wounded behind.
Oregon's men were celebrating what they believed to be the fall of Guaymas when the federalists closed in upon them.

EL PASO, Tex., July 10.—Henry Burton of Upper Montclair, N. J., was killed July 6 by a drunken rebel soldier while driving in the streets of Santa Rosalia, Chihuahua, Mexico.
The body reached here today en route
east.

General Manuel Chaco, commanding
the rebel troops at Santa Rosalia, has jailed the murderer and promises
prompt justice.

Juarez fortification work continues with the rebels no closer than for the last week so far as is known. United States signal corps men are busy stringing wires through the lower portion of El Paso to connect General Scott at Fort Bliss with all American troops on border duty in the event of an attack upon Juarez.

Battery C, Sixth United States field
artillery, made a reconnoitering trip
today along the boundary.
It was expected that the battery was only "limbering up," but heretofore all "limbering up" exercises have been in the open country several miles from El Paso.

ILLNESS DEFERS WEDDING 4 YEARS

Sister of Bride Passes Away

summated.

Although Alton Volquardsen and Miss Berline Maloney of San Francisco took out a license to marry in Alameda county on June 7, 1909, the ceremony was not

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harvey M. Leach of the First Eng-

Grove streets, on that date. The couple explained that owing to illness of a sister of the bride, the wedding plans were not carried out at the time the license was

ARREST RECEIVER OF ILLICIT DRUG

Police Capture Consignee of Morphine Shipped Here
From Reno.

The police have been investigating the bringing of morphine into Oakland from Reno, as the information was obtained several weeks ago that the drug was being illicitly smuggled into this city. As a result of the investigation Clyde F. Young of the Haller house, Twenty-second and San Fablo avenue, was taken into custody for having morphine in his possession from which he had received a consignment of the contraband from Reno.

The arrest was made by Inspectors William Kyle and Thomas Wood, and will be charged with a misdemeanor
having morphine in his possession.
The Oakland police have notified the national officials of the illicit business.

It is known to the police that there are several people in Oakland receiving the narcotic from the Reno distributing station, and every effort will be made to trap the men who are engaged in the traffic. It is possible that a drug ring, with agents in many cities of the coast, may be unearthed
as a result of the capture.

OAKLAND MECCA OF BIG CROWDS

Thousand Natives Will Come From South on Admission Day.

C. M. Hunt of Los Angeles, representing the southern parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West, has been in Oakland for the past few days arranging for the necessary accommodations of visitors from the southern part of the state. That 1000 Los Angeles natives would march in the Admission Day parade in addition to several thousand other southern members of the order, was the belief of Hunt, who is enthusiastic over Oakland as a celebration city.

While the railroads in the south are making plans for special excursion trains, a large part of the delegations from below the Tehachapi will come on a magnificent chartered steamer.

Statistics have been compiled by the playground commission for the fiscal year 1912-13, and the members feel thoroughly satisfied with the conditions and attendance during the 12 months just past. Two new playgrounds were added to the already long list of public amusement places. Bella Vista and Park Boulevard becoming immediately popular with the residents in their localities.

The total attendance for the year is 738,805, a distinct gain over similar figures for the year before, when 423,406 boys and girls took advantage of the playgrounds. The gain is partially due to the opening of Mosswood, which is only a little over a year old, and the other two, Bella Vista and Park Boulevard. A partial list of the games played shows 15,998 baseball contests, 4233 basketball games, 8030 volley ball competitions, 3422 football games and 15,191 games of handball.

TO EQUIP PERALTA. Besides constant improvements to the parks during the year, the commission plans to thoroughly equip and beautify Peralta, and by this time in 1914 expect to have vegetation and all kinds of athletic equipment there to amuse the youth of the neighborhood. The attendance by playgrounds follows:

CHAMBER URGES SHORE HIGHWAY

Southern Solano County Deeply Interested in Work of Local Boosters.

SOLANO, July 10.—The southern end of Solano county, including the 160 square miles of Solano Irrigated Farms, is deeply interested in the joint campaign of the Oakland chamber of commerce and Contra Costa county for the "Bay Shore Highway."

The state has ordered a survey of this route, which will follow thirty miles of waterfront from Oakland to Antioch, flanked by railroads.

This road, on a water level, would connect the greatest industrial area on the Pacific coast, says the last bulletin of the Oakland chamber of commerce. Solano's chief interest is in the fact that the route would cross the Oakland and Antioch bridge for a straight shot up the Sacramento valley and therefore would, for fifteen miles, run through the middle of Solano Irrigated Farms, probably via the West Dixon road.

With the bridge to cut out ferry service, this route would win every motor car driver traveling between the capital and the bay cities.

In anticipation of such a highway the Solano company is widening and graveling the connecting roads, building new ones and lining them with eucalyptus and elm trees. And it is only one feature of the transformation going on in this great area.

ADMITTS MILITANT ARSON ACTIVITY

Woman Confesses to Recent Destruction of Sir Lever's Residence.

LIVERPOOL, England, July 10.—A dramatic confession of incendiaryism was made today by a well-known militant suffragette, Mrs. Edith Rigby, wife of a physician at Preston, to the magistrate sitting in the police court here. She was remanded for further hearing.

Mrs. Rigby declared it was she who last Tuesday burned down the country residence at Rivington, near Horwich, Lancashire, of Sir William H. Lever, causing damage estimated at $100,000. She further confessed to being the perpetrator of the outrage at the Liverpool Cotton Exchange on July 5, when a bomb exploded but

Mrs. Rigby surrendered voluntarily to the police when arraigned today, she gloried in her achievements, saying she wanted Sir William H. Lever to consider whether his house was more valuable as a show place than as a beacon lighted for the king and the country to see women suffering an insupportable grievance. She said she was "lighted that beacon."

CHOSE EXCHANGE. "I chose the Liverpool Cotton Exchange because the cotton industry has been built up largely by women's labor. The merchants are willing to get power and wealth out of the labor of women while the women themselves are denied the vote of citizenship. This is the first knock at the door."

Mrs. Rigby has been a member of the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant suffragette organization, for many years and has taken a great part in public movements to promote the welfare of women. She has been imprisoned five times in connection with the suffrage movement and was on several occasions released owing to the breakdown of her health after "hunger strikes."

POLICEMEN FACE NEGLECT CHARGE

San Francisco Officers to Stand Trial Before Commissioners.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—Charges were preferred this morning against Detective James Walsh and Joseph Mier for neglect of duty and they will have to stand trial before the police commissioners.

E. W. Springer, of 1180 Market street, is the complaining witness. He reported to Acting Captain Anderson about the alleged neglect of duty of his coat containing nearly $50 in coin. The investigations of the police led to the discovery that Springer had reported directly to Special Officer Mier in the first instance, and the failure of Mier to notify his superiors as was not taken any notice and make any mention of the occurrence, has led to the accusations.

SEEKS DIVORCE FROM HER BOSSY HUSBAND

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—"If you married me, you married a boss. I am boss, and don't you forget it," said Frederick W. Mrs. Reich wants a divorce. She told how her spouse had treated her as a servant and had informed her that he was sole manager of the household when she complained.

BROOKS SENDS DIARY TELLS ABOUT LONDON

That Master William C. Brooks, son of A. E. Brooks of this city, is having a glorious time in his world travels with the Columbia Park boys, is the opinion of all who have received correspondence from the young man. The latest letter received from him by his parents contained portions of the lad's diary, written while the company of boys were in London. All the old world "sights" were "taken in" by William, who tells about them in the following diary:

ALL TAKE SWIM. Tuesday, May 27, 1913. In My Room, London, Eng. Awoke at 8:45. Breakfast 9:15. And had lunch on the lawn. Our Free until 10:30. When we all went to the baths for a swim. At 11:45 Goodbush, the woman from Oakland I told you about, and believe me, we had some lawn lunch. We had two different kinds of sandwiches, eggs, lime juice, and other things, raisin buns, oranges, apples, bananas. After that we all went to Eaton college, one of England's best, where all nobles go, and there we saw the roll called, and the teachers are respected a

Returned home and turned in at 9:15. Weather very warm today. VISIT TOURNAMENT. Wednesday, May 28, 1913. In My Room, London, Eng. Awoke at 8 o'clock. Breakfast 8:30. Free in the morning. Louis O'Brien and Sleepy Wolf and myself visited the Royal and United Service museum. After lunch we went out to the Olympia and saw another part of the military tournament. After supper we went to the playhouse and saw a play, "The Headmaster." Turned in at 11:30.

ATTENDS HOSPITAL. Thursday, May 29, 1913. In My Room, London, Eng. Awoke at 7:30. Breakfast at 8. In the morning we were free, so I went to the St. Thomas hospital with a friend. We saw the original warrant to behead Charles I with Cornwallis' signature attached. We saw a picture of the embarking of the Pilgrims for America. When we got home I went upstairs and slept until 3:30. After supper we went to Lyceum and saw Ivanhoe, and it certainly is a great play. Turned in at 12 o'clock.

SOLDIERS DRILL. Friday, May 30, 1913. In My Room, London, Eng. Awoke at 8:15. Breakfast 8:45. Afterwards we went up to the White Hall, where we saw the king's best soldiers drill, and they are pretty rotten, let me tell you; they don't keep straight lines. Our soldiers have got them skinned a mile. After lunch we went out to Lords to see a cricket game, but Oh! it is some exciting game, I guess not. After supper we were free, so I went for a little walk and then turned in at 8:30.

WINDSOR CASTLE. Saturday, May 31, 1913. In My Room, London, Eng. Awoke at 8 o'clock. At 8:30 breakfast, after which we took a special train to Windsor Castle and went all through it. You know that is where the king lives when he is not in London. There we saw Queen Victoria's china which was given to her by her mother, and two solid silver tables given to Mary, Queen of Scots, by Alexandra of Russia. We all saw the Watford room, in which were paintings of all the great battles of the battle and relics of the battle. We were in the reception room, a room with great big fancy electric lights, great big sofas which must have been sixteen inches thick; that is the cushions were. We were in the throne room and I stepped on the royal rug before we got to the throne. We saw and were in the room in which the king holds banquets and in which Sousa and his band played before King the evening we were free, so Robert Menzel and I went up to Hyde Park to listen to the Irish band. Turned in at 10 o'clock.

NAVAL COLLEGE

Monday, June 2, 1913. In My Room, London, Eng. Awoke at 8 o'clock. Breakfast at 8:30. Free in the morning, so I just sat around and played ping-pong. After lunch a Mr. Holmes from the University of California, who is traveling, took me to the Julius Threshing and myself and went out to Greenwich. There we went into the Royal Naval college, where we saw Lord Nelson's coat, where the bullet went through it in the left shoulder, his socks, breeches, waistcoat, sword, watch and seal. We were also in a crypt which was built in the year 1527. While there we saw some of the finest models of battleships ever produced. We afterwards went through the great Greenwich park up to the clock where the world's time is set. It is rather a peculiar clock. It has twenty-four hours on it and when we got there it was twenty minutes of seventeen by that clock, which made it twenty to five by our watches. So I set my watch and it was correct for once with Greenwich time.

After supper we went out to Earl's court, which is just like London. We had a very pleasant time there. Turned in at 12:20, pretty tired.

SOLOON ROBBED.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—Special Policeman A. Koffman found the saloon of George F. Glicter, Washington and Battery streets, open this morning. He investigated and discovered that a window had been jammed. The cash register had been robbed of $23.50 and a quantity of whiskey had also been stolen.

around the bay is more than perfunctory interest in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Beatrice Gimmaraez, daughter of Mrs. George Schell Gimmaraez of Brazil, and Dr. Oscar Orestes da Silva.

The southern country upon the eighteenth birthday of the bride-elect, and the wedding will be a brilliant event of next winter. The bride-to-be is a charming girl who is well known in the bay section, where she has visited several times, and has been one of the fêted birds of the season at each appearance. She is related to some prominent California families. Her mother's father was Theodore Schell, one of the pioneers of the state, and owner of the old Schell residence on Broadway and an extensive ranch in Sonoma county, both of which places were famous even in the open-handed early days for the lavishness of their hospitality. The town of Schellville was named for him.

Miss Gimmaraez paid her most recent visit to California three or four seasons ago with her mother, and they were delightfully entertained during their stay, which was divided between the Woodward home and the Butters residence in Piedmont. The petite bride-elect is a cousin of Miss Beatrice Gimmaraez, Mrs. Victor H. Metcalf Jr. and Mrs. Seana E. Woodward of Berkeley. Dr. da Rocha is a member of an old and prominent family in Rio Grande do Sul, and has just completed with honors a course of law at the University of Rio de Janeiro.

Davis, after her return from the Yosemite, whether she has gone for a fortnight while Mrs. Davis is visiting other friends. She came here from her home in Honolulu a week or so ago, and will remain about three months, Mrs. Davis coming to join her here about the middle of August. He is a prominent architect of the islands.

RETURN HOME.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Clark have reopened their home in the Adams Point district after a month's absence in the north, where they were the guests of Paymaster and Mrs. Rushworth Nicholson at the Fremont Navy Yard. The usual jolly round of gay little entertainments was given for the young matron, who was Miss Viva Nicholson, during their stay at the navy yard. They are planning another outing later in the summer.

ENTERTAINED BY FRIENDS.

Letters received from London tell of the delightful affairs being given for Mrs. Hope Cheney Havens, who is visiting there. Since leaving New York early in the spring Mrs. Havens has spent most of her time in London, and she will return to the French capital for another extended visit before returning to America.

TO WED TONIGHT.

The wedding of Miss Mary Ada Pence and Lieutenant Lewis K. Underhill will be celebrated this evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Pence, on Le Conte avenue, Berkeley. It will be a quiet ceremony in the presence of a few relatives and friends, and the Reverend Doctor Bosmer will officiate. The bride's father will give her away, and her sister, Miss Edith Pence, will be her attendant. Leslie Underhill will act as best man for his brother. The home will be decked with American flags, pink roses and ferns, and a wedding supper will be served after the ceremony.

ON HONEYMOON TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Symmes have departed on their honeymoon trip, and upon their return will make their home on Thirty-seventh street, Oakland. The wedding of Miss Minnie Harris and Symmes took place last evening at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. Bruce Philip, on Fruitvale avenue. It was one of the prettiest of the smaller weddings of the season, and was attended by a few relatives and friends. Several score more coming in later for the wedding reception. Reverend Doctor Phillips of the Congregational denomination was the officiating clergyman.

The home was attractively decorated with blossoms and greenery, and the double ring service was used under a bower of dainty Cecil Bruner roses and ferns, erected in the bay window of the drawing room. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white embroidered tulle, made on train, and with the bodice draped with rare old rose point lace. The same handsome lace formed a Juliet cap which held in place a long tulle veil, with point lace edging, caught with orange blossoms and greenery. She carried a shower bouquet of white orchids, in which a few sprays of Cecil Bruner roses were tucked. Her train was of delicate white tulle, edged with the same lace as the gown, and the maid of honor, Mrs. W. J. Phillips, wore a gown trimmed with white tulle, and carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and roses.

The bride's father, Mr. W. J. Phillips, gave her away, and her sister, Mrs. W. J. Phillips, was her attendant. The groom, Mr. Edwin Symmes, was accompanied by his brother, Mr. W. J. Phillips. The wedding was given him this spring.

Don't Strain Your Heart Over-Exertion Dangerous

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyrighted, 1912, by Lillian Russell.)

THIS is a little lesson in philosophy, including advice which should make people remember at times that they have hearts, also that these hearts, the main springs of the human physical machines, are composed of muscular tissue.

This is a busy age; one in which people unnecessarily hasten with everything they do, without reckoning that the inexorable law of physics is in effect. Therefore, the habitually nervous person should hesitate for a minute and think about the heart, to realize that it is possible for this organ to become tired, and to understand that every time the heart is forced to labor, its life is shortened in some degree.

If a piece of elastic is stretched many times it loses its elasticity. If the heart is overworked repeatedly it does not recuperate its strength. The muscles of the organ become weakened and worn out, sickness and hopelessness result. When the heart is once permanently impaired there is little left in life except apprehension.

A sudden dash to cross the street in front of a street car, a hurried climb of stairs, violent exercise in field or gymnasium—these are a hundred other practices which are weakening the hearts of countless people.

It is as well to remember in the beginning that there is plenty of room to cross a street behind a street car; that stairs can be negotiated without causing the heart to beat furiously; that exercise is a friend, and as such should not be abused.

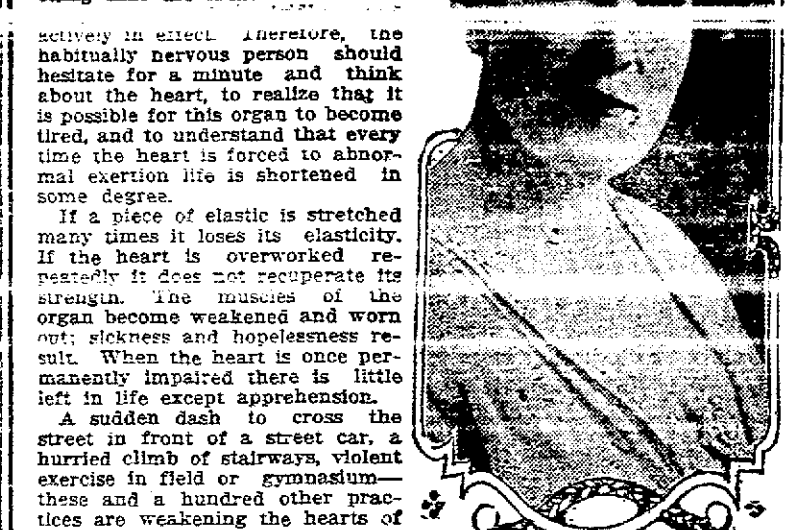

Each person has but one heart, and it is sound but once in life. I mean by this that, once impaired, the heart never regains its former soundness and strength. Exert the muscular tissues or exercise the delicate valves to a senseless degree, and the penalty must sooner or later be paid.

The over-exertion of the heart is the principal danger in alcoholic or other stimulants. One would not take a valuable horse and drive him at a pace that would wear out his heart and kill him. Yet how many thousands of people will mercilessly stimulate their hearts to the exertion which kills.

Excesses of all kinds are injurious to the mainspring of the body. Intemperance in eating, in drinking, in exercise, in the ordinary exertions of the day, all are wearing upon that part of the human machine which is most important to life.

When there is a disposition to hurry unnecessarily, it is a good thing to meditate, if only for a minute, that the heart is life itself—therefore be kind to it.

Remember the old saying, a chain is no stronger than its weakest link, and apply it to the heart.

MRS. M. A. S.: There is nothing that will make the muscles of the face sag, ruin the complexion, and make wrinkles more quickly than poor health. To be beautiful one must be healthful. However, I am sure you can build up the tissues in your face and eradicate the wrinkles by using a good skin food and facial massage at night before retiring. The best time to massage the face, as you can lie in a relaxed position after the treatment. The complete instructions under the formula for a skin food if you will send me a stamped addressed envelope. The skin food will also make the face more plump.

MISS K.: If the ends of the nose, which form the joints are naturally large one must be content to let them remain as they are. You can make the hands more plump and then the enlarged joints will not show so plainly. Each night massage the hands with a good skin food or warm cocoa butter. When massaging the fingers massage each finger separately, rubbing it gently. You can get cocoa butter at any drug store.

MRS. W.: A dry shampoo once in a great while when it is impossible to shampoo the hair any other way is all right, but one should not make a practice of it. Equal parts of orris root and corn meal are good, or just powdered orris root alone. Rub it thoroughly into the hair and scalp and let it remain overnight, or for a couple of hours. Then brush it out.

REAL FARM BOUGHT AS TOY FOR RICH BABY

NEWPORT, July 10.—Vinson Walsh McLean, the $100,000,000 baby, has a new plaything which his father, Edward McLean, says is the most sensible of all his toys, the total cost of which would foot up nearly as much as the President of the United States' salary for a year. The new plaything is a farm with a goat on it.

Mr. McLean bought his farm at Bay Point, nine miles from here. And with the goats and sheep and chickens and the negro boy whom his father has picked out as a playmate for the young multi-millionaire may grow up democratic, he is having a bully time.

Baby McLean, now 3 years old, has a gold cradle, the gift of King Leopold of Belgium, in the Washington mansion of his parents, and over $50,000 worth of playthings there. But he cares little for any of these. He would rather feed chickens or make believe play with an Angora goat on his farm. He particularly likes work in the cornfield, and next to that, perhaps, to look after his chickens going to bring my son up to be a plain, democratic American," said Papa McLean. "His farm is better for him than all the toys in the world."

PRESIDENT CAN TAKE SHOWER IN WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, July 10.—There is going to be a shower bath in the cellar of the White House. It has been requested by no less a personage than the President, and it is evidently intended to keep him cool while he is spending his hot summer in Washington.

When President Taft first arrived he demanded, not a shower bath, but a tub big enough for his huge proportions, so to speak. He got it. There is wonder here if that tub is still in the White House, and if it is, it must be too large by far for the new President.

RELASCO WINS.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Judge Mayer in the Federal District Court yesterday decided the Belasco play, "The Case of Becky," was not an infringement of the copyright on "After Many Days." Aurelia Backman and George L. McKay, as owners of the copyright, had sued the Belasco production declared a violation of their right.

ANNUAL RETREAT FOR Y. M. I. BEGINS TONIGHT

SANTA CLARA, July 10.—The annual retreat for the members of the Young Men's Institute of San Francisco begins at the University of Santa Clara this evening and will conclude Monday, July 14.

The second annual retreat will begin Thursday evening, July 17, and will end Monday morning, July 21.

For the first retreat 40 applicants in San Francisco have signified their intention of participating, and for the second the number has reached 50. These retreats are planned for the benefit of business and professional men of the bay counties, who come here to the university and its mission for a period of meditation and prayer.

THEATRICAL MECHANICS CLOSE CONVENTION

SPokane, July 10.—With the election of Charles W. Scanzler of Cincinnati as president, and the naming of San Francisco as the meeting place for 1915, the biennial convention of the Theatrical Mechanics' Association of the United States and Canada practically concluded its business sessions here last night. The delegates expect to leave here Friday morning for a trip to San Francisco.

DOES SHE LOVE A FAT MAN?

"Dear Miss Libbey: I love a fat man. I mean I love a man and he is fat, but I wish he wasn't because I don't like fat people as a class—undoubtedly. I only wish they were all as fat as the 245 pounds. We look ridiculous together. Perhaps I have always said I wouldn't marry a fat man. What shall I do? Do you know of a good fat reducer, and are you willing to try it? I never would live over it if he should injure his health trying to reduce his fat to please me. MISS S.?"

"Don't have him injure his health whatever you do. A fat husband is of more value than an invalid one. Why bother whether he is fat or not as long as you love him?"

HAS HE A RIGHT TO PROPOSE?

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am 24, in my third college year, and have been years to go to a professional school. Now there is a young woman very near my own age for whom I have a very deep regard, and who has been very kind to me. I am working my way through school, while the young woman's parents are wealthy. I have a right to propose to the young woman under these circumstances? I mean, would it be fair to her to ask her to marry me, when I am a student and she is a socialite? I can't let her go out with me without a try."

(From The Family Physician.)

Beauty devotees are enthusiastic over the beautifying qualities of mercurized wax. Perhaps nothing discovered within recent years accomplishes so much, so quickly, without harm, without detaining one indoors, and at such small expense. The principal reason for its wonderful merit is that it works in harmony with physiological laws. Instead of hiding, as the make-up artists do, it removes the skin blemishes. The wax actually takes off the aged, faded, yellow, freckled or blotchy surface, gently, gradually, causing no inconvenience. It is Nature's way of renewing complexions. When the natural process is retarded because of deficient circulation of nerve tone, mercurized wax comes to the rescue and hastens the skin shedding. The new complexion which appears is a natural one, youthful, healthy, aquiline beauty. If you've never tried mercurized wax, get some of it at the drug store. Use it every night, and in the morning. Another mercurized wax treatment will remove the skin blemishes and give you a new complexion.

GIRL INVENTS NEW RAG "OCEANIC OSCILLATION"

Miss Thekla Eickhoff, Aided by Orchestra, Swaying Steamer and Another Girl, Springs Sensation

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—Comes now the "oceanic oscillation." It's a new "rag"—something like the tango, or kindred contortions, but still different, for it must have its inception in a spirit of ennui, engendered by a lack of masculine gallantry; must be danced to the tinkling notes of a Filipino orchestra, before a discerning audience and must not be terminated until said Filipino orchestra is prostrated through sheer physical weariness.

Until recently, very recently, the "oceanic oscillation" was unthought of. The necessary elements, disapproving audience, tinkling music, Filipino orchestra and, ad lib., were present, but the spirit of the ensemble was lacking until Miss Thekla Eickhoff of 1560 Lake street took cognizance of the situation. Then, behold! the "oceanic oscillation!"

Miss Eickhoff, blonde and rather tall, from a two weeks' vacation in Hawaii immediately after her departure from the island port Miss Eickhoff became aware of a despicable inclination on the part of the male passengers to recline in steamer chairs or to retire early. The usual round of social diversion was missing. Something had to be done.

Summoning a group of Filipino musicians, Miss Eickhoff conveyed her instructions and then started out to enlist the support of the male contingent. The support, however, was conspicuous by its absence.

Not to be daunted by this situation Miss Eickhoff finally secured a partner of the gentler sex. With noses a-tilt, both girls traversed the promenade deck, gave the leader of the Filipino orchestra the sign and the dance was on!

Expert authority has it that the dance was one of the most artistic conceptions ever staged on the deck of a steamer. It possessed originality, delicacy and expert execution, incorporating all the vivacity of the modern "rag," but lacking any real or imaginary delicacy.

Can you assure you that it was some dance? declared Miss Eickhoff. "None of the men would show any life, so I devolved upon the girls to enjoy themselves without their assistance. We danced until the Filipino orchestra gave out and could not play any longer. Possibly even then we might have continued, but several persons were looking daggers at us, so we quit."

THE very thought of coming vacation brings with it dread as well as pleasure. A little to spend she wants all that she can get for her money. She begins by thinking of the farm house in New York, where she will take no other boarder but herself. She knows that she would not have an extra stitch of clothes to provide. It would be a dollars less than she is paid for her board in the city, which would more than compensate for the care of her coming and going. She would have plenty of fresh air, which she would love. But, oh, it would be so lonesome.

For a dollar more she could go to a boarding house in an adjacent village. Not to be the least, she would have a new and a new brilliant skirt. She reckons if she had to get that much for additional clothes, she would be a dollar less than she is paid for her board in the city, which would more than compensate for the care of her coming and going. She would have plenty of fresh air, which she would love. But, oh, it would be so lonesome.

EXPENSES BEGIN

After she has sent her letter of inquiry to the hotel, she realizes that she should not participate in the dances of which she was so fond in her brilliant life. She would require a simple white slipper as well as some kind of a little ornament for her hair.

The proprietor replies that he will take much pleasure in reserving a room for her. His prices are $10 a week. He adds he could let the room a dozen times over to others for more money, perhaps. But he has accepted her order. That settles the matter.

In looking over her wardrobe she sees that her coat is far shabbier than she dreamed of. People on piazzas do not wear shabby coats. She decides to have a new one. She invests in as good a coat as her purse will allow, even though she knows that it is too hot for warm days and too heavy for cold ones. She observes that her present hat, which is of last year's vintage, is quite out of date. She must have a new shape, even though she brushes the same, trimming and puts it on again.

MORE EXPENSE

She finds to her dismay that she cannot crowd all of these things into an old satchel which she was intending to take. She decides to have a new one. She invests in as good a coat as her purse will allow, even though she knows that it is too hot for warm days and too heavy for cold ones. She observes that her present hat, which is of last year's vintage, is quite out of date. She must have a new shape, even though she brushes the same, trimming and puts it on again.

COMPLETES TOUR OF THE ORIENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—Returning on the Mongolia yesterday were Mrs. Thomas B. Bishop and her son, Frank Bishop, who have completed a nine months' tour of the world, spent apart from the beaten tourist track.

Mrs. Bishop and her son have traveled widely during the last few years and are familiar with many of the way spots of the globe. Last year they sailed from New York to Madeira and from there to Cape Town, South Africa, which Mrs. Bishop had visited before. She was fully explored, but the heat was intense during most of the time they were there. Mrs. Bishop said, and the only part which appealed to her by its beauty was Natal, Africa," she said, "and has a few points of great interest, and these are of course the Kimberly diamond mines, Victoria Falls and the great interior lakes of which we visited. The rest of the country is desolate.

"We went to the source of the Nile and then to the east coast."

They and the east coast were the next points of their tour. Mrs. Bishop said she was so enthusiastic over the beauty of Ceylon and Casmere. All through India they journeyed, well into the Himalaya mountains, and that country is, she declared, the most interesting which they saw.

China, its rivers and principal cities, and Korea, were visited, and it was planned that the travelers should go to the trans-Siberian railroad back to Europe. The excessive heat decided them against this, however, and they made up their minds to sail from Yokohama for San Francisco.

Mrs. Bishop is now a guest at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Bishop, in Washington street.

SUFFRAGETTE IS SUED FOR DIVORCE.

SPokane, Wash., July 10.—Sue for divorce from Lardner E. Baker, prominent in the suffrage campaign from the state of Washington and elsewhere, and author of several books on eugenics, has been started in the Superior Court here by Albert Baker. The plaintiff alleges that they were married in Seattle in 1906, that he has not known where his wife is now, but believes she is in his Oregon.

He asserts that she deserted him in March, 1909, and that they have lived apart since, against his expressed wishes. He asks that property standing in the name of each remain as is, the property was owned separately when they married and they have obtained no community property since.

Mrs. Baker for months lived here at a local hotel and left suddenly two months ago for San Francisco, where she lives at 1506, that fact was not known to Oakland, where she hobnobbed with the Jack London.

BAGGAGE BEARS SUFFRAGE STICKERS.

PAJO ALTO, July 10.—With ingenious devices such as "votes-for-women" stickers on her baggage, instead of the usual hotel and railroad markers, Mrs. Alice Park of Palo Alto, one of the California delegates to the international suffrage congress at Budapest, Hungary, is attracting considerable attention for her ideas while abroad. She has not reached the militant stage from all accounts but, being a suffragist, she is not according to letters received by friends here.

"Votes for Women" is on all her baggage. Instead of the usual stickers of different hotels and railroads and boat's that travelers accumulate on their trips and trunks, I have invented baggage labels, making them of the United States suffrage map, suffrage stamps and the like. Whenever the baggage of scores of passengers is left on a dock or at any station, mine is easily the most conspicuous. It is not only easy for me to find, but also too conspicuous to be taken away by mistake or theft.

MABEL TALLAFERRO IS A BRIDE.

ST. LOUIS, July 10.—Mabel Tallaferrero is the bride of a secret marriage at Tapere, Mich. June 10 to Thomas J. Carrigan, who was her leading man in "Spring and Summer" and came to St. Louis to revive his part in the war time drama, which he played for a year with his bride in New York City. They were married at Carrigan's home in the presence of his father and two sisters, and the bride was admitted today. She was married again, but said business reasons made her wish to keep it a secret.

As the wife of Frederick Tallaferrero, who erected the New York Hippodrome...

CHURCH WANTS REV. PALMER CALLED

First Congregational Members Favor His Selection for Pulpit.

Take Action Regardless of Whether Consolidation with First Church is Made.

Following the sending out of ballots for a vote on the calling of Rev. Albert W. Palmer to the pastorate of the First Congregational church, it has developed that 60 out of 80 prominent members canvassed by the pastoral committee favor the selection of Rev. Palmer regardless of whether the First church consolidates with Plymouth, of which he is pastor.

It is also known that Rev. Palmer has stated that he knows of but one thing that will prevent his acceptance of a call to Mount Pleasant Congregational church of Washington, D. C., and that is a call to First church, Oakland.

FAVOR REV. PALMER.

It is believed the members of the latter body are prepared to vote almost unanimously in favor of Rev. Palmer as pastor of a church to be formed by consolidation of Plymouth and the First church congregations, in view of the result of sounding 80 leading members.

Rev. Palmer is known to be in favor of the maintenance of a downtown First church, even if the present property at Twelfth and Clay streets be sold, and his selection as pastor of a consolidated church would entail the naming of a second pastor. Either Rev. Palmer or his assistant would be in charge of the pulpit in the center of the city. The Plymouth church would be conducted for the benefit of families and for the Sunday school, while the First church would be operated as an institution for social service, with a strong pulpit that would prove attractive to transients as well as to members who would find attendance there convenient.

BALLOTS WILL BE SENT.

Many of the members of the First church are now out of town on vacations, but ballots will be sent to those whose summer addresses are known. It is expected that a practically complete vote of the congregation will be obtained before the end of this month. If the call is to be extended to Rev. Palmer, it will have to be done within the 30 days during which he is to reserve his decision as to acceptance of the Washington call.

Begin Fight for $7,000,000 Estate

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—Theodore Frothingham, not a former district attorney, but a former New York and New England relative of Abel Stearns, a California pioneer, has begun a fight for a portion of the $7,000,000 estate left by Mrs. Arcadia de Baker, who before her death recently was known as the richest woman in Southern California. Stearns, who died in 1871, was the first husband of Mrs. de Baker, and according to the claimants, left an individual estate of $1,000,000, which was included with Mrs. de Baker's property.

The battle started with a petition, on file in the probate department of the Superior Court today, in which the claimants pray to have the present administrator of the estate ousted and the heirs who before her death recently were known as the richest woman in Southern California. Stearns, who died in 1871, was the first husband of Mrs. de Baker, and according to the claimants, left an individual estate of $1,000,000, which was included with Mrs. de Baker's property.

Henning is charged by John Campe, cashier of a local bank, with having cashed a check for $55 drawn on the First National Bank of Santa Rosa. Henning is said to have confessed.

LACKED HOME LIFE; DIVORCE

MRS. LEE TELLS OF MARITAL TROUBLE

But "There Was Nothing in Common."

"I had everything that I desired except companionship," declared Mrs. Eva May Lee, wife of Charles Franklin Lee, a wealthy real estate dealer and chairman of this city, who filed suit for a divorce yesterday upon the ground of cruelty. Prior to filing the complaint Lee settled all the community property interests with his wife outside of court in the presence of attorneys. Among other valuable real holdings in this city he gave her the complete ownership of the Newsom apartments on Valdez street, which is valued at $50,000. For the past two years she has been managing that house for Lee.

"Temperamental differences are responsible for the divorce," declared Mrs. Lee in her apartment yesterday. "My husband gave me everything in the world that I desired. He spent his money freely upon me and I never knew him to deprive me of anything. I have nothing to say against him. We found out that we could not agree and then we mutually agreed to separate. We had nothing in common with each other, that's all."

Six months ago the couple separated, but after careful consideration Mrs. Lee decided to secure a divorce. She was placed on a pedestal by Lee, who was very proud of her and rarely attended club or social affairs without her. But despite the fact that he admired her and lavished much of his wealth upon her, there was, according to Mrs. Lee, a total absence of companionship and home life, which she craved and which she did not receive.

WIFE ACCOMPLISHED.

Mrs. Lee is charming and interesting, with many accomplishments which are rare among the members of her sex. She is very hospitable and has often opened her home for club and social affairs. Mrs. Lee has legions of friends here, where she has made her home for the past four years. She is active in many clubs.

For the past six and a half years the Lees lived together. They were married seven years ago at the home of Mrs. Lee's mother, Mrs. M. M. Atwell, of Fruitvale. Lee was divorced from a former wife.

Mrs. Lee said she overlooked many of his shortcomings, but when he threatened "to fill her full of holes" she resented his treatment, as she did his threat to "spank her."

In fraternal and club circles Lee is popular. He has given his financial and moral support to worthy organizations of Oakland.

Teddy to Fight for Jap Naturalization

TOKIO, July 10.—The Tai Hoi Yee, a Japanese newspaper, says that Theodore Roosevelt has received a letter from Theodore Roosevelt expressing the view that American public opinion will not permit the Japanese naturalization in the United States, as it would lead to a similar claim on the part of the Chinese. Mr. Roosevelt, according to the news agency, promised to use his efforts in the solution of the California alien land ownership situation.

MRS. CHARLES FRANKLIN LEE, WHO IS SUING HER WEALTHY HUSBAND FOR A DIVORCE.

WHERE IS $2,000,000? ASKS EMILE NUSBAUMER

Oakland Traction Money and Securities Sought by Stockholders

Minority stockholders of the old Key Route and Oakland Traction Company have appointed a committee to "pursue an investigation concerning the consolidation of the companies and to report, after this investigation, what chance the small holders have of recovering their money from the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Company, or any other concern or person that might be responsible in the matter."

The meeting was held in room 1105 of the Union Savings Bank building yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It was called at the instigation of several of the minority stockholders, including Judge Emile Nusbaumer, who minority alleges that their certificates and stock and bonds have passed into a state of non-production of interest. They further allege that this was brought about by a consolidation in which they had no voice and which they believe to be illegal.

The committee named to bring others of the minority stock and bondholders into action and to investigate the status of the holders, and the corporation, or persons, that might be held for interest, past and present, consists of Rupert Whitehead, Judge Nusbaumer and Henry Wadsworth. The small number of stockholders present at the meeting, about 27, made it obvious that no immediate action could be taken that would lead to the recovery of the money.

SEEK MEANS TO RECOVER

Instructions to the committee were to evolve some means of bringing back to the small stockholders such part of the investments they had made, with the two original traction corporations, out of such investments that have been paid for interest, past and present, consists of Rupert Whitehead, Judge Nusbaumer and Henry Wadsworth. The small number of stockholders present at the meeting, about 27, made it obvious that no immediate action could be taken that would lead to the recovery of the money.

J. S. Drum, chairman of the committee that has the reorganization of the Smith concerns in hand, was present and explained that negotiations had been about and that a bonding company that would clear the atmosphere considerably. He said that $2,500,000 was due within a few months and that another $1,100,000 would be due later.

Drum said: "The consent of the Railroad Commission will be required to permit us to float $12,000,000 in bonds, but we must have the sanction of the stockholders before we can do this. The bonding houses then can lend the money necessary to pay these debts to which you refer and satisfy the claim of the floating debt. This will also allow enough money to carry on the work of the company."

"The matter stands this way: We think that within one year we can bring about an adjustment that will obviate unnecessary litigation. If the bonding company accepts the bonds it can immediately foreclose and the corporation's affairs brought to a new footing."

MONEY AND STOCK MISSING.

"We have made a search of the records of the traction companies and have been unable to account for $2,000,000 in money, stock and bonds that were presumed to be in the treasury prior to the consolidation. We want to know what has become of it."

There was a shadow of an ulterior motive for the meeting. It was obvious, though not definite, that there was some reason for calling the gathering other than that appeared on the surface. The attendance did not seem to justify general action. Although calls had been sent out few responded.

It developed that it was the purpose of several of those in attendance to raise a fund among the minority for the purpose of bringing into action a law that is said to have important bearing on the subject, Rupert Whitehead, spokesman for the minority stockholders present, is said to have discovered this law. An assessment was proposed and the fund that would be raised this way, it was said, would defray all legal expenses for a suit based upon this law, or any other that might be effective.

STOCKHOLDERS INQUIRE

Questions were asked by the stockholders regarding the transfer of "the good assets of the corporation to other than dividend purposes."

There was also a general interrogation as to what had been taken out of the Key Route and to what this money had been diverted.

No one seemed to be able to answer this question or to give a very definite reason why it was asked. Whitehead explained that what "most of the stockholders desired was to know something about the old Oakland Traction Company and what was taken out of both the Key Route and that concern."

Judge Nusbaumer spoke of the possibility of setting aside the sale of the roads by legal process. He mentioned the good securities that were exchanged for poor. He said: "It is remarkable that they had $1,500,000 surplus with which to meet bonded indebtedness and make no show of cost of operation. They ought at least to have had $1,000,000 out of this. Now, where is the money?"

"They had done nothing toward betterments and painted only a few cars. The dividend won't come for five years" (apparently meaning the stockholders' dividend). "What we ought to do is to find out what E. M. Smith did with the money; whether he gave it to his wife or to anyone else. This committee ought to get in touch with all stockholders and find out what ought to be done."

Someone asked the question whether a list of the stockholders could be obtained from the trustees of the corporation.

"Anyone can get hold of a list of the stockholders if he is a stockholder," answered Whitehead.

SEEK NAME COURT ACTION.

Judge Nusbaumer added, "Any stockholder can go into court and get action against any corporation to maintain his rights."

Whitehead referred several times to the reports that Price, Waterhouse & Company have made concerning the operations of the syndicate. He drew several deductions that applied principally to the possibility that a campaign of litigation might unscramble a technicality that would upset the present plans to put the syndicate on its feet.

When the committee was organized it was chosen that E. M. Smith, partly into the consolidation of the Key Servians Continue to Press Bulgars Closely; Retreat From Isup.

ATHENS, Greece, July 10.—A Greek naval force occupied today the seaport of Kavala on the Aegean sea, hitherto in the hands of the Bulgarians. The valley of Strumitsa also has been taken possession of by Greek troops.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 10.—Bulgaria has placed herself unreservedly in the hands of Russia, with the view of bringing about a cessation of hostilities in the Balkans and in order to prevent further bloodshed, according to an announcement made here today, apparently on good authority.

BELGRADE, Serbia, July 10.—The Bulgarian troops continue to retire, closely pursued by the Servians, according to official reports received here. The Bulgarians retreating from Isup had intended to occupy Radovich, an important town some miles to the east, but the Servian cavalry drove them out of this strategic position yesterday. The Bulgarians fled precipitately, leaving the dead and wounded and throwing away rifles, ammunition and food.

FRANCE TO NEGOTIATE

VIENNA, July 10.—France has undertaken to negotiate with Serbia and Greece on behalf of Bulgaria to ascertain what terms of peace can be arranged.

The French government has advised the Greeks and the Servians not to demand too much or otherwise Bulgaria is likely to prefer to take the chances of fighting out the quarrel.

LONDON, July 10.—It is officially confirmed here that Bulgaria has taken the initiative of asking the European powers to try to end the Balkan war.

Military Sky Pilot Has Narrow Escape

SAN DIEGO, July 10.—A biplane piloted by Captain Hennessey, military pilot attached to the First Aero Squadron at North Island, was at a high altitude yesterday when it suddenly pitched forward and threw him out of his seat. His right foot became caught in the wires which control the ailerons. The plane immediately began to fall. Captain Hennessey, however, succeeded in wrenching his foot free, regained his seat and righted the plane within 200 feet of the water.

Warship Wiring Plans May Never Be Found

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Officials of the navy department virtually have abandoned hope of recovering the electric wiring plans of the dreadnought Pennsylvania, which were stolen from the navy department last March. Secret agents of the government have run down clew after clew without avail. Secretary Daniels now is of the opinion that the plans never will be found nor the culprit brought to justice.

The strange disappearance of the plans caused a sensation in naval circles.

BOWLERS PREPARING FOR CUP PLAY

It was ideal weather for bowling on the Lakeside Park green yesterday afternoon and after a good rolling the ground was kept fairly true.

Two nine pin teams were in the mid-week practice of the Oakland Scottish Bowling Club. Double-handed teams, bowing to the man, played on each rink, and hard-fought matches were contested.

On rink No. 1 the following score was recorded:

W. Hepworth, L. G. Burrell (skip)—313 101 000 401 101 002 401—19

George B. M. Gray, A. McAllister (skip)—000 040 203 301 010 110—17

On rink No. 2 the contest was even keener, although the score, which followed, does not show it.

E. R. Smith, Major Henry Hume (skip)—102 230 000 002 110 021 010—16

Robert Danielson (skip)—020 003 112 430 001 203—26

On Saturday afternoon the south park green will be used to give the members of the club a chance to test it preparatory to the return match to be played on it Saturday afternoon.

On Saturday afternoon the Oakland and San Francisco clubs. The latter won the first match on the Golden Gate Park green by the narrow margin of eight points.

An error crept into the report of a practice match played between the McMath and Hume teams on Saturday afternoon as reported in this SUNDAY TRIBUNE, for which the score keeper, a member of the first named team, was held responsible. The score was 10-20, whereas the three points secured on the last end which broke the tie existing in the twentieth, were not scored.

As the match was closely contested and illustrated a wonderful recovery, which frequently happens in play on the bowls, the following is a list of what appeared up to the eleventh end as a hopeless contest, and has excited considerable comment among the bowlers of the Oakland and Scottish Bowling Club and outsiders who are interested in bowling on the green, the corrected record of the match is herewith produced:

McMath team—213 100 052 200 001 002 010—20

Hume team—001 141 200 021 140 010—23

One of the peculiarities of bowling on the green is that the first half of any contest between evenly matched teams is a criterion of the match is going to close. At the eleventh end the score stood McMath 16 points to Hume only 7, and the latter was apparently beaten. But on the twelfth end the Hume team acquired mastery of the green and therefrom picked up, being one point ahead on the nineteenth end, the match and winning out on the final. It was an ideal match and stubbornly fought to a finish on both sides.

HOLD CONFERENCE
ON IMMIGRATION

Pacific Coast Movement Considered At National Charities and Correction.

SEATTLE, July 10.—Besides the special session to consider Pacific coast immigration, the National Conference of Charities and Correction held four sectional meetings this morning. Alexander Johnson, general secretary of the conference, addressing the section on children, severely criticised the practice of some states in spending $1000 per capita in building state institutions for invalids. "When we are face to face with the problem of providing for perhaps one-half of one per cent of the whole national basis of cost."

Lewis Meriam, assistant chief of the Federal Children's Bureau, contrasted the millions appropriated each year for the Bureau of Animal Industry with the $23,500 for the entire work of the Children's Bureau. H. Q. Richardson, superintendent of the Philadelphia House of Detention, also addressed the section.

Professor Anton de Haas of Stanford University opened the standards of living and later section with an address on "unemployment insurance," discussion of which was led by Stewart Rice of the University of Washington.

"That municipal government can no longer be called the conspicuous failure of the United States" was the optimistic message delivered by Stanley H. Howe of Philadelphia before the house supervising and administration section.

In discussing the problems of the American family, John R. Howard Jr., general secretary of the Thomas-Thompson Trust of Boston, said that the white family of native parentage in America has learned the art of spending, but not the art of saving. Mr. Howard's address was discussed by Margaret Baylor of Santa Barbara, Cal.

CAMP LIFE IS EASY
FOR WAR VETERANSLoss of Life Less During Week
Old Soldiers Were At Gettysburg.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Loss of life among the fast disappearing veterans of the Civil war was less during the week in which the old soldiers were gathered by thousands in camp at the recent Gettysburg celebration than it would have been in their own homes, according to official figures furnished by Secretary Garrison. As a result the secretary of war today sent letters of commendation and appreciation to the officers whose work in laying out, policing and attending to the comfort of the old soldiers made a case possible.

The showing is all the more remarkable in Secretary Garrison's opinion because of the intolerably hot weather than prevailed during the encampment.

FISH FAMINE FEARED
IN HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

HONOLULU, July 10.—Situating in the middle of the Pacific Ocean and virtually surrounded by fish of every description, this city is facing a fishless Friday. A famine in the finny table delicacy threatens, owing to the fact that at a recent session of the legislature, in their far-seeing wisdom, adopted a law prohibiting the use of nets more than twelve feet in length in fishing for smaller fish that are used as bait to catch the larger table supply. This law went into effect last March and has resulted in the Japanese fishing fleet being tied up in the harbor for some time. Fish that previously retailed at 10 and 12 cents is now quoted at 18 and 20 cents, with only a small quantity in the market.

However, R. M. Pitt of San Francisco ("King" of Fanning Island) has a solution for the difficulty and proposes to import fish to Honolulu from Fanning, where there is no legislature to govern the size of nets or the catch of fish. He is now devoting his time to plans for the importation of the fish, which may be caught in abundance around Fanning. His present idea is to tow the catch to Honolulu in large tanks, thus reaching this market with the live fish. Fishing at Fanning is easy work. When the tides rise the lagoons around the island are rapidly filled, the fish following the current. When the tides begin to subside a gate is thrown across the opening of the lagoon, leaving it filled with fish when the tide is low.

Thousands of fish may thus be caught, says Pitt, at every low tide, as many as seventy-five varieties being caught in the lagoon at one time.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES
IN DIVORCE SUIT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—Marie Zola, a native of Austria, filed a suit for $50,000 yesterday in the United States District Court, charging Raymond F. Conlisk with breach of promise. In the complaint, Marie Zola charges Conlisk with being the father of a child which was born in the Sacramento County Hospital on September 28, 1909. The complaint further recites that Conlisk often called on Miss Zola and told her he was going to marry her and that on this account "he had the liberty of calling upon her at all times." Henry F. Marshall and Walter Thompson are attorneys for Miss Zola.

Raymond F. Conlisk is the son of Charles W. Conlisk, prominent clubman and manager of the Hotaling Estate. Raymond Conlisk is an electrical engineer employed by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

VERGO VIOLET
TOILET WATER MAKING MANY FRIENDS

"I think your Vergo Violet Toilet Water is one of our customers recently when asked to give her honest opinion of this particular Bowman specialty. "I have used a great many different toilet waters but I've never found one I like as well as this."

Of course we thought she would say something like this or we wouldn't have dared ask her—but seriously speaking, Vergo Violet is getting to be very, very popular.

Some of our customers must have purchased a couple of dozen bottles, coming back time after time for more.

There must be merit in any article that will show such results.

Fifteen Thousand Cakes of Soap at One Purchase

Fifteen thousand cakes of soap is a great many and when it consists of one kind of soap and represents only one purchase you can imagine it must be mighty good soap or we wouldn't have purchased so much.

We refer to Bowman's Victor Soap, one of the best all around toilet soaps we know of, hard-milled, pure tallow soap, delicately perfumed and attractively put up.

By purchasing it in quantity we were able to secure the right quality.

The price is 10¢ a cake, or three in a box for 25¢.

If you want an economical, satisfactory, long lasting toilet soap, here you are!

BAY SHORE HIGHWAY
APPROVED IN SOLANO

SOLANO, July 10.—The joint campaign of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce and Contra Costa county for a bay shore highway from Oakland to Antioch is approved in the southern end of Solano county. Such a road will follow thirty miles of water front and reach the most productive territory in California.

Using the Oakland and Antioch bridge at Chippis Island, the route would cross into Solano county for a straight shot up the valley. For fifteen miles it would run through the Solano Farms property, and in anticipation of such a route the company is already widening and graveling the connecting roads and lining them with eucalyptus and elm trees. It is only one feature of the transformation of the region.

The proposed highway, cutting out the ferry difficulties, would be used by every automobilist that drives between Sacramento and the bay cities.

RAILROAD EMPLOYE TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

SAN JOSE, July 10.—Christopher C. Rogerman, former employee in the Southern Pacific Auditor's offices in San Francisco and at one time cashier of the Shasta Bank at Redding, ended his life yesterday by gas asphyxiation in his home here. He had been in ill health since his removal here four months ago and poverty was weighing upon him. He leaves a widow and three children.

BY CLASS INITIATION

The campaign closes on August 1 and several prizes have been offered for individual and team work as well as a special prize for the council securing the largest number of new members.

On Wednesday evening, July 23, the members of Oakland council will hold a social which will practically mark the end of the campaign for this council.

Face to Face Courtesy

GOOD telephone service depends largely upon mutual courtesy. The telephone is more useful to those who talk as if face to face, for civility removes difficulties and facilitates the promptest possible connections.

As in other intercourse, it often happens that two or more people wish to talk with the same person at the same time. Without courtesy confusion is inevitable, and the confusion is greater when the people cannot see each other.

The operators must be patient and polite under all circumstances, but they will do better work if they meet patience and politeness on the part of telephone

The Bell Telephone Service enters intimately into the social and business life of each individual. The best results come through the practice of mutual courtesy.
